SOME THINGS CONSIDERED

"Our Most Holy Week"

As individuals, as families, I urge you to try to take time this week as we commemorate the central events in the life of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Lent ends Holy Thursday afternoon when we move into a separate time known as the "Sacred Triduum (three days)" Each day of the Triduum will begin with Morning Prayer in the church at 9 AM. If possible, on one or all the days, come to open the day with the ancient prayer of the church. The service which includes some singing, with spoken parts by the congregation. It will not be longer than thirty minutes.

The Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper will begin at 7:30 PM. It recalls Jesus gathering with his disciples on that night. During the Mass, those willing partake in the foot washing. This ritual act reminds each of us who wash, who are washed and also who watch. We are called to serve, just as Jesus who first washed the feet of his disciples. The Mass ends with the Eucharist being processed and reposed. The church is open until midnight for prayer. An ancient custom is to go to three churches for prayer on this night. Bring your family, take time yourself this most holy night. We will conclude at 11:45 PM with Night Prayer.

Good Friday begins again with prayer at 9. At Noon, our Spanish community gathers in the Hall for the Stations. At the same time the Ecumenical Good Friday Service begins at St. Mark's Church and will process to several churches through 3 PM.

The Solemn Service of the Lord's Passion at St. Michael's will begin at 2:00 PM. This ancient service which includes the reading of the John Passion, the Veneration of the Cross and the reception of Communion will take about an hour. It is solemn in every respect and charged with symbol and meaning as we remember Jesus' death and burial. Good Friday will conclude with the Living Stations presented by members of our Youth Group at 7:30 PM. If you have never been you must consider time for this very moving presentation of the Passion of Jesus. Holy Saturday opens with Prayer at 9 then we wait as a community until dark (8:30 PM) to begin the Vigil of Easter. At this Mass the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation will be celebrated with our Elect, Kristin Fish and Reception in the Church for Lawson Whiting and Charles Jaeger.. This is perhaps the oldest of the Holy Week liturgies and the one which is most moving if you have never been; you will not be disappointed. The Eucharist of Easter will be celebrated at 7 AM, 8:15 and 10:30 AM. The music will be full of joy. We will renew our Baptism, which we have spent these Lenten days preparing for and rejoice in the Light and Life of Christ. Invite a friend to come with you to Easter Mass or the whole of Holy Week as we bask in the Grace of these days. Have a wonderful and blessed week. Love, Fr. Peter

Dear Church Family,

Lent is just about over (how did you do?) and today marks the beginning of the most holy week of the Church year. In all honesty, it's a crazy time for us here at St. Michael's. A lot of preparation goes into the celebrations of this week's prayers, and services and Liturgies. I sort of liken it to a bride getting ready for her wedding...the planning part nearly drives her insane, but as the day finally arrives, and she's walking down the aisle—a calm falls over her, and she's able to enjoy herself. I hope that's how it will be with all of us.

So, I'm officially taking the opportunity to invite you to any or all of our upcoming celebrations. Let's see, we have morning prayer at 9 AM on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Holy Thursday we will celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper @ 7:30 PM. Then the traditional Night Prayer will take place @ 11:45 PM. On Good Friday the Solemn Service of the Lord's Passion will take place @ 2:00 PM and the Youth Group will present, "Follow in My Footsteps—Jesus' Journey to the Cross" @ 7:30 PM that same day. Holy Saturday we celebrate the most sacred of all Liturgies...the Easter Vigil Service, which takes place @ 8:30 PM. Yes, I know...this one is a LONG one...but it's so beautiful, and I urge you to come if you have never experienced it (or even if you have). At this service we also welcome our newest Church members, who have been attending RCIA classes all year. Believe me, it's not to be missed—oh I almost forgot to mention the music. Ah, yes—the music. What can I say? It gives me goose bumps, so I know it's good (that's how I can always tell) and when the Litany of Saints is being sung, well the feeling I get then is beyond description. Much of this service brings us back to some of our traditional Catholic roots, and that's something we can all use occasionally. Easter Sunday morning we have three Masses @ 7:00 AM, 8:15 AM and 10:30 AM. Okay, so no one can ever say that we Catholics don't give ample opportunity to celebrate and worship! And celebrate and worship we will...so please join us. It wouldn't be the same with out you!

I didn't get to write much about Palm Sunday today, but one quick observation—I find it so sad and ironic that less than a week after Jesus' joyous entry into Jerusalem, complete with shouts of joy from the onlookers, that those same people are shouting for Jesus' crucifixion. How quickly we can turn away from Jesus. Let us strive to not ever be that way—and should we stray, pray for God's grace to bring us back where we belong.

May God bless you all with a Glorious and Joyous Easter Season! Love, Jeanette
P.S. Thanks for all the positive comments on my haircut...I love you all.
