STAFF CHANGES

These end of year days bring changes to our parish and school staff. Charlotte Pitrella has served our parish for years beyond my counting. Charlotte became a teacher at St. Michael's school many years ago and in the mid 80's principal of the school. Charlotte retired from the position of principal in 1993 and remained happily retired for about six months. Fr. Steinkirchner prevailed upon her to return to parish service shortly thereafter as Liturgy Coordinator. She has served the parish in that position to the present day. As you know Charlotte underwent a liver transplant earlier this year and continues to recover from that surgery. Last week Char-

SOME THINGS CONSIDERED
 STAFF CHANGES

These end of year days bring changes to our parish and school staff. Charlotte Pitrella has served our parish for years beyond my counting. Charlotte became a teacher at St. Michael's school many years ago and in the mid 80's principal of the school. Charlotte retired from the position of principal in 1993 and remained happily retired for about six months. Fr. Steinkirchner prevailed upon her to return to parish service shortly thereafter as Liturgy Coordinator. She has served the parish in that position to the present day. As you know Charlotte underwent a liver transplant earlier this year and continues to recover from that surgery. Last week Charlotte told me that she has decided to retire. I cannot begin to compute Char's impact on our parish much less the loss her retirement will create. Thank you seems so thoroughly inadequate in the face of such long, skilled and generous service. Mary Dundas is a member of our parish and for the last several years our Youth and Young Adult Minister. This week the diocese offered her a position in the office of Evangelization and Catechesis. Mary will support local Faith Formation staff like our own Jeanette, she will support Pre-Cana teams, RCIA teams and sacramental preparation programs. While with us she pursued and received her Master's degree from St. Bernard's School of Theology and Ministry. Deb Housel and Rose Leisenring followed the same path while here at St. Michael's. Along with Mary they too have gone on to further service in the diocese. Many thanks to Mary for her faithful and skilled care of our young people and wider service to our parish. Rebecca Hollon came to the parish staff as bookkeeper succeeding Pat Housecamp. Rebecca also a parishioner has kept tally of both parish and school expenses and extensive staff and parish records. Like Mary and Charlotte her service has been generous and faithful. Unlike Mary and Charlotte few interact with Rebecca as she is hold up in the back office of the Parish Center. However, I have worked with her daily throughout and am deeply grateful for her skill, attention to detail and loyalty to the parish.

Joan Harris also a parishioner came to us as secretary following the retirement of Ada Laskin. Beginning in mid August she will assume the position of bookkeeper. Jeanette Housecamp, a parishioner and our Faith Formation Coordinator has agreed to take on extra duty as Youth Coordination during this coming year.

Finally, Carol Archunde our school secretary has announced her desire to move on from St. Michael's school. Like Charlotte Carol has served the school as secretary for years nearly beyond counting. Many know her warm reception on the phone and in the office. Many parents and children know Carol's care for our children through these many years. Chris Barrett will take on the duties of School Secretary. School parents will know Colleen Spellacy our fourth grade teacher. After many years of service here and at St. Mary's Waterloo Colleen has decided to retire. We will miss Colleen very much. She is a very skilled teacher, a deeply faithful women and has served our children and families so well these last several years at St. Michael's. To all who go forth from us for retirement or new opportunities God's Blessing and Care as well as our deep thanks for all you have given to St. Michael's.

Have a wonderful Holiday love, Fr. Peter

FAITH FORMATION ...

Dear Church Family,

"Do not be afraid; just have faith." This is the line from today's Gospel from St. Mark that truly struck me! As a matter of fact, I printed it out and taped it on the top of my computer screen here at work. I think this will be my new mantra. What do you think? It's simple and to the point, and it instructs us (in one brief sentence) the best way to live our life.

Fear is such a part of our lives. Fear of the unknown; personal fear of our inadequacies; fear for our children; fear for our families. Most of our fear is expressed in stress and worry, and in feeling overwhelmed. The way we live today certainly enables us to feel this way! But, here is the good news— "Do not be afraid; just have faith." Does this mean nothing bad will ever happen to us again? Unfortunately, no. But it does mean that with Jesus walking beside us, it will be okay. Here's the key— we have to accept Jesus' help...or maybe I'd be better to say we have to simply accept Jesus. One of the best ways to do this (in my humble opinion) is by receiving Jesus in the Eucharist, which will strengthen, fortify and nourish us like NOTHING else can. We have an "in" with Jesus folks! What a privilege this is!

I'm keeping this short and sweet this week, but I pray that you're all having a wonderful and refreshing summer! What a beautiful time of year this is. All the greenery, the flowers, the sunshine. Yes, we are truly blessed. And I'm truly blessed to have all of you in my life! Enjoy the prayer I've included below. It's another favorite of mine. God bless you!

Love, Jeanette <><

Holy Are Your Ways

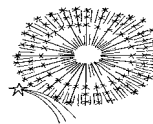

Help me to understand, Lord,
that what counts is not the road traveled,
but simply putting my hand in yours
and journeying side by side with you,
Lord Jesus --

O you who are the joy of my journey
and also the repose in the Father's home!
Holy, holy is the Lord, for eternal is his love.
Amen.

Prayer for Independence Day

Dear God,
As we celebrate today with fireworks and festivals, help us never to forget the reason for our joy.

Help us remember that our rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness were signed into our heritage with the willing blood of American patriots.

Most of all, help us remember that the rights of all people are more than words on a document,

And that all people have rights because you have given us the dignity of human life.

Grant freedom to all,

And give us the strength to protect the rights of others.

Amen.
