Stephen Ministry

St. Michael's Church Newark, New York

July 15, 2007

"We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give." This is a quote by Winston Churchill. I like how it points us to the deeper meaning of life. A life steeped in generosity has greater depth and meaning than a life immersed only in self gratification. Our lives are made more meaningful through our generosity and reaching out to others. As I said in my homily last weekend, we are sent on mission two by two. We experience God's kingdom as we reach out and touch each other's lives. The encounter of the Holy can be met in the ways that we help each other through our journey of life.

Generosity is the word I would use to describe my experience thus far here at St. Michael's. Shortly after the announcement was made in February of this year that I was made pastor of St. Michael's, I received a note from a parishioner. It was a most gracious note. I believe it expresses the spirit of this parish community. A very generous and spirit-filled community.

From the moment I arrived on that Tuesday (June 26), I was greeted by a wonderfully generous and welcoming staff. They have helped me in my transition in so many ways. The many questions that I have asked have been answered by a very patient and wise staff. I cannot thank them enough for what they have done, and continue to do for me.

That evening I was treated to a delectable meal that went far beyond my expectations! The 5 women who prepared it did it in that wonderful "St. Michael's" generosity, given from the very hearts of these women. The meal was fantastic and the conversation was even better. Getting to know them was a real treat for me! Thank you, ladies!

The receptions after each of the Masses 2 weekends ago were yet another demonstration of your generosity. The Rosary and Altar Society sponsored each of the receptions and did so with great charm and graciousness. Thanks to the ladies of the Rosary and Altar Society for providing us with the place to meet, greet and eat!

A big thank you to all of you – the St. Michael's parish community! You have shown in a tremendous way the generous spirit of God alive in a very real way here in Newark. I am a recipient of that generosity and I thank you for your kind words, gestures, and love. I have landed here at St. Michael's and feel very much welcomed, and at home. As I arrived here on Tuesday, June 26, the sign on the back door of the rectory read, "Welcome home, Father Mark." The spirit of generosity here makes this community a home for me because that spirit gives life. I look forward to journeying with you as we give that spirit of life to each other. Blessings to you this week, Fr. Mark

Things Considered...

Summer is back, and I think it is wonderful! Just a reminder that with summer here many are on vacation and we are more often in need of substitute liturgical ministers, ushers, servers. If you see that we are short, please come forward. If you are planning to be away, please try to get a substitute so that we are not looking for help at the last minute.

If you haven't stopped by the Mary Garden lately please do stop by - it is beautiful.

One of the needs we have beginning in September is for someone to represent our parish at the monthly Together In Christ meetings. This is an ecumenical group which meets on the 3rd Tuesday of each month at 7 pm. The churches who participate in TIC are: First Baptist, Emmanuel Methodist, 1st United Methodist, Park Presbyterian, St. Mark's. Woodlane Community, Redeemer Lutheran and St. Michael. We each take a turn hosting the meetings. The first one is September 11 at 7 pm at our parish center. When possible a staff member attends this meeting as well. Please contact me if you are interested in being our representative to this group.

I will be away on retreat from this afternoon through the afternoon of July 21 and I'll be on vacation some of that next week. I will remember you in prayer during my retreat and I ask for your prayers as well...and of course I want warm weather and a nice breeze! I'll be St. Columban Center in Derby, NY instead of my usual trip to Gloucester this year.

Enjoy these beautiful days of summer...winter will arrive much too soon and I'll be counting the days until Spring arrives again... Blessings, Pat

Dear Church Family,

This week has started out as a scorcher. I personally can live without the weather being this hot, but in all honesty I wouldn't trade this time of year for anything. My family and I took a drive to Sodus last evening, trying to avoid the heat. The wind was really picking up as we reached the shore of Lake Ontario, and there were strong waves and whitecaps. That however, didn't keep us from walking the shoreline, collecting rocks and searching for driftwood. As I stood there looking out over the water, I was filled with the awe of this life, and the beauty of the world. I know, I can sound a bit hokey at times, but the truth is we are surrounded by God's glory, so I'm still amazed when I meet someone who doesn't see God in all that surrounds us. But I guess that's okay, because we all have times when our faith (like everything else in this life) can waiver. ~ The recent tragedy of the loss of the five young Fairport girls is one of those times.

What can any of us do or say that can make a situation such as this better? Not much, but we can pray. We can ask for God's grace to be with the families and friends of these young women. We can be grateful, that God in his infinite wisdom, sent Fr. Peter to Fairport. One of his gifts is helping those who grieve, and I'm sure he's probably never been so challenged in his life. We can also be grateful for the community members, the school faculty, the youth ministers, the church communities, etc., who stepped up and did what needed to be done. In all suffering there are moments of grace. Moments we realize that we are not alone. Those are the times that see us through. Our faith teaches us that this isn't the end, and there will come a time when we will again be with those we've loved and lost. What a blessing that is!

So, take some time this summer to experience God in this life...go for a walk along a shoreline—have a picnic with your family and friends—play games—stay up late reading a good book—go see the new Harry Potter movie—take time to read Scripture—pray the Rosary—take time to just be with God and be grateful. Because it's in those times that we are truly closest to God. And in our gratitude, let's remember these wonderful words in today's gospel from St. Luke..."Love the Lord, you God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself...do this and you will live." Now that really is living!

Have a great week. Love, Jeanette

SCOOCH & KFC NEWS from Jeanette:

Thank you to all of you that made it to our youth group carwash on June 30. We made over $200! If you missed it, don't worry—you'll have another chance to get your car washed by our enthusiastic youth on July 21, from 11:00—2:00 PM, again at Bee Tee's. I do however have some sad news to report—our kids were not very Christian, as they totally tricked their youth minister and soaked her with the hoses from two different directions at once. Oh, how I love all these kids! I hopefully will be better prepared at the next one.

The month of August will be our Penny/Coin Drive. A big jug will be placed in the Gathering Space before and after all Masses in August, so please save that loose change for our youth! Pennies are very welcome!

Thanks to the youth that volunteered at the hospital Decontamination Drill on Friday the 13th! And remember, please contact me if your interested in helping at the Free Lunch Program.

YOUTH GROUP KIDS CHECK THIS OUT!

I will be taking a group of kids with me to Assumption Church in Fairport on Sunday, July 22, to celebrate a Life Teen Mass that our own Fr. Mark will be presiding over. The Mass begins at 6:00 PM, so we'll leave Newark by 4:45 PM. If you've never experienced a Life Teen Mass before, it's not to be missed! I hope to see you there! If you're interested in going, please call or email me:
