EASTER SUNDAY

SOME THINGS CONSIDERED

With joy I welcome all that have come to join us for the Easter celebration. Welcome to all visiting family members and friends, welcome to all friends near and far who gather in the light of the Lord this day and celebrate His Resurrected Life.

A very Happy Easter to you!

Many thanks to all who worked so hard to make our Holy Week truly blessed. Our musicians and liturgical ministers, Pat, Jeanette and our Music Director, Barb Rathbun have all labored long and hard on our behalf. Jeanette Housecamp and our Youth Ministry who presented on Good Friday evening, thanks to you. Thanks to Diane Dubler and her wonderful crew who worked behind the scenes arranging flowers, to Betty Colasurdo and Randy and many others for cleaning and polishing, thanks to you too.

Today we celebrate life over death. We celebrate the power of life embedded deep within our souls, a life that will not be extinguished. We celebrate the awe that fills our spirit and soul when we see a crocus or daffodil bloom in spring, when we see another rise above the tragedy and struggle of daily life. Here at this table we celebrate Good News! Our God reigns, our God is good and gracious and remains! Our God who first created us has remained dwelling with and within us. At this Easter festival we raise voices rich and joyful in praise of such wonder and goodness. Alleluia, Alleluia to Christ our Lord, Alleluia to life rising from the crust of a seeming frozen earth. Alleluia, to the indomitable strength of the human spirit that will not succumb under the weight of life's trial. Alleluia to the God who calls us to eternal glory. Today we celebrate the Lord of Life, Alleluia. Happy Easter! Love, Fr. Peter

Help that works.
Hope that lasts.

We have been meeting with pastors and pastoral administrators in order to determine how we can best work together on behalf of those most in need in Wayne County. One of the recurring themes was an interest in knowing more about what CCWC does. To that end, we will be periodically providing brief bulletin inserts.

We thought starting with the agency's mission statement was a good first step:

The Mission of Catholic charities of Wayne County is to provide the highest quality of services to individuals, families and communities, seeking to empower them and assist them in developing self-sufficiency.

Our Values, rooted in Scripture and Catholic Social Teaching, compel us to acknowledge the dignity of every human being.

Our Services are offered to ALL people in Wayne County, with an emphasis on service to the poor, the marginalized and others in need. We are strongly committed to lead, advocate and act for social and economic justice.

Our primary address 1141 E. Union St. in Newark, with additional services at 16 Maple St. in Sodus. Call 331-4867 for more information.

We are in need of someone who could fill in temporarily to take the donated food from St. Michael's to the Local Food Closet. (below the Police Station) For more information or to volunteer, please contact Mary Jo Fenyn @ 331-4166.

Mark Your Calendars: the next Rosary & Altar Society meeting will be Wednesday, April 25. Don't miss this meeting; we will be having pizza and a guest speaker.

Rummage sale open house after all masses April 14 & April 15. Come & shop for great bargains.

Dear Church Family,

I wish you all a wonderful Easter Season. Most of us know that Lent lasts for 40 days. But, did you know that the Season of Easter lasts for 50 days? It lasts from now until we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost. Easter is the pinnacle of our Church year! When I asked the First Communion children what the most important holiday of the year was, most of them answered, "Christmas!" I would have too when I was 8 years old. Still, when I explained to them why Easter was so important...that it's the day when Jesus rose from the dead, after dying for our sins, and finally opening the gates of heaven for us all...well, I think they sort of got it.

As adults, I truly hope it's not hard to get. And I also hope we all spend some time thinking about what Easter means to us as Catholics today. The resurrection of Jesus is the basis of our Catholic faith. If Jesus hadn't risen from the dead...well, luckily we don't have to worry about that. All that ho-ha awhile back regarding the "Lost Tomb of Christ," was sort of interesting (I watched the TV special) but it was a bunch of bunk. How do I know? Because my faith tells me so. I believe in Jesus. I believe in the resurrection of Jesus. I believe in the Ascension of Jesus, and I believe that Jesus will come again. That is my faith. That is our faith. And that's what Easter is about—new life in faith.

So, I know for a fact that many of us worked hard during Lent to better ourselves spiritually, physically and emotionally. After all, that's what Lent is about, but I have another proposition for you. How about taking the next 50 days of this joyous Easter Season to work on your faith? You know, the kind of faith that sees us through the tough times. The kind of faith that encourages us to be better than we are now. The kind of faith that says to those around us, "There's something special about that person, and I need to find out what it is." Now that's something to work on, and this is a perfect time of year to do so. Why? Because our faith tells us to. HAPPY EASTER! Love, Jeanette and die;

Christ died
And lived!*

SCOOCH & KFC NEWS from Jeanette:

Thank you to all the youth that helped with the presentation of "Walking in His Footsteps; Jesus' Journey to the Cross." If I do say so myself, the kids did a great job, despite all the jitters (I had them too) and they presented a very moving experience on Good Friday. Thanks too to Jim Coleman, who continues to help me in so many ways. His input and work on the sound and lighting were great! Although there were a few glitches, I think the kids will be ready for another go-round next year.

Our next SCOOCH & KFC gathering will be a combined "Movie Night" (grades 6—12) on Monday, April 16th, from 6:30 'til 8:00 in the Chapel. The Church Hall will be in use for the rummage sale, so the Chapel will be our movie theatre! Just so you know, the Consecrated Eucharist will be removed to the Tabernacle in the main Church, as it would be disrespectful to have our movie there otherwise. We'll talk about that later. Until then, enjoy your spring break, and I'll see you all soon!

St. Michael School

Now accepting registration for Fall 2007 in our school.

St. Michael School environment is one of respect and nurturing. St. Michael School is a Catholic elementary school (grade preschool to eighth). The school focuses on having students live their faith, achieve high, yet individual academics standards in an atmosphere of true respect, taught by NYS certified teachers. Tuition assistance is available for those who qualify.

Our school is located in Newark at 320 S. Main Street, and has an open admission policy for children of all races and religions from many of the surrounding school districts with busing provided.

The school offers extra-curricular activities, special services, extended care, parent organizations and many unique qualities you may find very appealing.

We have openings in all grades for September 07. Please call the school at 331-2297 for more information, for a tour, or to register.
