True Progress

My Dear People,

The twentieth century has brought the greatest advances in science, medicine, and health in human history. When the 20th century began, few places even had electricity. In thirty short years, not only had electricity become nearly universal, but likewise the telephone, x-rays, radio, films, and the airplane. When the century closed, the computer alone created a different world than had existed in 1900. But if humanity has made such progress in technology, has it progressed in morals?

Last week, I wrote to you about the Rosary, mentioning that Our Lady appeared in 1917 in Fatima, Portugal, to three shepherd children asking them to pray the rosary. This year—1917—was a critical year for several reasons. It came during the height of the First World War, and it marked the beginning of the Communist Revolution in Russia. Not only did Mary ask the children, (and through them, the world) to pray for peace, she also said that people must stop offending God, “Who is already too much offended”. Now, in 1917, most parts of the world were still religious in some form or other. But soon atheistic Communism was to take over an entire portion of the globe, bringing about a situation where a large percentage of humanity would deny that God even existed. As the years sped by, fewer and fewer people were concerned with God, the practice of the Faith, or with living according to the morality of the Gospel. By the end of the century, Communism had collapsed as an economic and political system in certain places, but atheistic materialism took the place of religion in many Western nations. The brilliant light of electricity illuminated our towering cities, but in the hearts of so many, the light of Faith had been extinguished. Antibiotics brought life to those whose illness once meant certain death, but immortal souls languished without the medicine of Eternal Truth.

God, however, is not overcome by sin. From the vantage point of eternity, He had a plan and antidote for this confusion: devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. A mother’s heart is a refuge for her children, protecting them, watching over them, and helping them. If Mary’s pure heart was prepared by the Holy Spirit to become the Mother of our Savior, it was likewise prepared to love every single person for whom the Precious Blood of her Son was spilt—you and me. If a mother’s love is all-powerful, what can we say of the love of the Queen of all Mothers? At Fatima, Mary taught the little children this simple prayer: My God, I believe, I adore, I trust, and I love Thee. I beg pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not trust, and do not love Thee. That we would pray this angelic prayer daily! Jesus found refuge as a child in the sweet love of His Mother, Mary. May her Immaculate Heart be our refuge in life and in death.

Fr Walter

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL
Goal: $44,851.00 Actual: 0 Donors: 0
We have started our parish CMA campaign. Those who are past CMA donors will be receiving a letter with a pledge card in the mail. If you have not ever donated please consider this year to donate. Information can be found in the gathering space or you can call the parish center. This year's theme is "I am the Vine, you are the Branches". This reminds us that Christ is at the center of our mission as a church and enables each parish, each parishioner and each donor to the CMA to bear good fruit. All monies raised in the CMA are ONLY used for the programs, services and ministries for which they are designated. No gifts to the CMA are used to satisfy legal fees or settlement costs associated with abuse. Thank you and please pray for the success of our efforts.

¿Das Gracias a Dios?

Piensa en tu oración. ¿Qué presentas a Dios en tu oración? A veces los que oran siempre están pidiendo algo de Dios. Está bien si pides, pero si nunca das el agradecimiento a Dios por lo que has recibido, hay un problema. Dios no es obligado a responder a nuestras peticiones. A veces Dios responde a ellas de una manera muy diferente que lo que habías esperado. Pero, puede ser que la manera de Dios es mejor que lo que querías.

Recientemente yo estaba hablando con una mujer que empezó a contarme de las bendiciones que ella ha recibido. La mayoría de ellas son miembros de su familia. Quizás muchos padres puedan decir que sus hijos, nietos y bisnietos son bendiciones, pero hay otros que se quejan de ellos, diciendo que los hijos no ayudan en la casa o que piensan solamente en sí mismos, no estudian, tienen amigos malos, están siempre en su teléfono... Puede ser que estos padres en su oración piden a Dios ayudar a sus hijos mejorarse y que salgan de su propio mundo para ver el mundo fuera de ellos mismos—que otras personas están allá y en necesidad de ayuda—una ayuda que sus hijos pueden dar. Puede ser que los padres levantan sus brazos al rendirse de todos los problemas que tienen con sus hijos. Pero, piense, padre o madre, a pesar de todo tú sigues amando esos hijos. Entregarías tu vida por ellos. Hay que dar gracias a Dios por ellos aunque hay veces cuando te gustaría que ellos fueran lejos de ti. Hay que contar tus bendiciones y agradecer a Dios por ellas.

Cuando nos sentimos bien, no pensamos en agradecer a Dios por nuestro buen salud. Cuando estamos enfermos, nos quejamos o mandamos muchas peticiones de socorro a Dios. ¿Y cuándo nos mejoramos, qué hacemos? Hay agradecimiento?

Los diez leprosos en el evangelio: todos tenían la enfermedad, todos fueron sanados. Pero solo uno volvió a agradecer al hombre Jesús quien lo sanó. Todos recibieron una vida mejor, sino su alegría compartida al estar sanados no incluyó Jesús. Así pasa con nosotros demasiadas veces. Estamos contentos por haber recibido algo, pero no compartimos la alegría y agradecimiento con el autor de la acción que causó la alegría original.

Hermana Kay

Den gracias al Señor, porque él es bueno;
su gran amor
perdura para siempre.
Salmos 107:1

Hands of Christ: The Hands of Christ is a recognition program of the Diocese of Rochester which helps to assist parishes in affirming their high school seniors who have been the "Hands of Christ" in their church, home, school and community; it is sponsored by the Department of Evangelization and Catechesis.

If you would like to nominate a 2020 graduating senior for this award, please pick up a nomination form, which are in the gathering space, or stop by the Parish Center to pick one up. Once all nominations are received by the deadline, the senior will then be contacted by mail with a letter explaining the award. Any youth nominated will be asked to write an essay about why they feel they should be considered for this recognition, being nominated does not mean they will receive the award.

All nominations need to be received by October 27, 2019. Nominations will not be accepted after this date, as we have to contact the youth and give them time to write their essays. After all essays are received, the parish staff will decide on the recipients of the award.

Beginning this year, any seniors who receive the Hands of Christ Award will also receive a scholarship award from St. Michael Parish.

Please keep in mind the following criteria for someone to receive this award:

- Has consistently demonstrated a Christian attitude by word and example.
- Has been actively involved in the parish as well as their school or community.
- Has been a positive role model to their peers, younger children and adults.
- Is a practicing Roman Catholic in a parish in the Diocese of Rochester and attends Mass.
- Is currently a high school senior.

If you have any questions please call the parish center.
