God's Hospital

My Dear People,

Last week I wrote to you that in the month of November we not only remember our beloved dead, but we also pray for them. Certainly, we should do this all year round, but we do so with special attention this time of the year because All Souls Day falls on November 2nd. As autumn slowly makes fade the verdure of summer, the leaves fall, the days grow shorter and colder, and so our minds and hearts naturally turn to the things of eternity.

The Christian life is just that, a life, and not a single decision where no further effort of change is needed. It is a pilgrimage, a journey where, in and by God's grace and help, we "put on Christ", that is, we put to death sin and practice virtue. In Baptism, God plants in our souls the three Theological Virtues of Faith, Hope, and Love (or Charity). The work or "job" that God gives to every Christian throughout their whole life is to cultivate these three virtues so as to know and love God more deeply every day. Sin is a step backwards, or even off the path. Everyone knows that the initial consent of the marriage vows is not all that's required to make a successful marriage. It's not enough to merely say "I do" once; the "I do" must be lived out over a lifetime. It takes daily application to make the promise of that love and fidelity real. And it is precisely this living out of love that makes it grow into something much deeper than what existed at the start. So too our relationship with God. Most of us can admit that our love for God and neighbor isn't perfect; it could be better. God's mercy allows that if this transformation towards perfect love is not finished when our earthly life is over, the soul still has time. This is what Purgatory is all about. One catechism describes Purgatory as "God's hospital"—a place beyond this life where the wounds caused by our sins in this life can be healed so that the soul can become whole and healthy and beautiful for eternity.

The best thing we can do to help those in God's hospital is to have the Mass offered for them. The Mass is the most powerful prayer since it is the prayer of Jesus Himself. At Mass, we always pray that the dead enter the Kingdom. In Eucharistic Prayer 1 we say: Remember also, Lord, your servants...who have gone before us with the sign of faith and rest in the sleep of peace. Grant them, O Lord, we pray, and all who sleep in Christ, a place of refreshment, light and peace.

It may well be that our loved ones are already in heaven and don't need our prayers anymore, which we certainly hope. But in case they do, we should pray for them. And above all, we should remember them at Mass, the most powerful and perfect prayer of all.

Fr. Walter

How And When Your CMA Gift Is Used

Your gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) is crucial. Donations fund the day-to-day operations for the Diocese of Rochester. Without your generosity, we could not continue to support our parishes and fulfill our mission.

When your donation is received, it is utilized immediately for current operations. The CMA supports offices, personnel and ministries that provide assistance and resources to parishes, pastors, parish ministers and Pastoral and Finance Councils through such offices as Safe Environment, Information Technology, Evangelization & Catechesis, Pastoral Services, Finance, Building/Property Management, Stewardship and Communications, the Tribunal and Risk Management. In fact, the CMA funds nearly 60 percent of the current diocesan operating budget in seven key areas:

- Serving the poor, the elderly and infirm through Catholic Charities
- Providing diocesan-wide services to our parishes and institutions
- Educating youth and young adults in the Catholic faith in our schools, parish religious education programs and on college campuses.
- Funding the formation of seminarians, deacons, pastoral leaders and vocations
- Supporting the ministries of Bishop Matano, the New York State Catholic Conference, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Vatican.
- Funding operations & support services of the Pastoral Center, including maintenance and capital improvements.
- Supporting the fundraising efforts of the CMA campaign, such as the cost of mailings, gift and data processing and staffing.

A detailed allocations chart can be found at www.dor.org/cma. All funds raised in the CMA are used for programs, services and ministries. No CMA contributions are used for the settlement of legal cases.

¿Realmente Crees en la Resurrección de los Muertos?

Las lecturas de hoy hablan de la resurrección de los muertos. Los siete hermanos pudieron enfrentar su ejecución porque tenían fe que después de la muerte en este mundo hay vida eterna con Dios. Tuvieron tanta certeza que uno dijo al rey que estaba matándolos: “Tú nos arrancas la vida presente, pero el rey del universo nos resucitará a una vida eterna.” Jesús en el evangelio dice “Dios no es Dios de muertos, sino de vivos, pues para él todos viven.” Dios es Dios de Abraham, Dios de Isaac, Dios de Jacob, Dios de Sr. Celestino, Dios de la Sra. Anabel, Dios de tus bisabuelos, tíos, tías, y abuelos. Todos son vivos en Dios.

Es cierto que después de esta vida no continuamos nuestra vida en la misma manera. Lo de este mundo, de esta tierra, de nuestra historia, de nuestra familia va a pasar. Cada domingo profesamos nuestra fe cuando juntos decimos en el Credo “Espero la resurrección de los muertos y la vida del mundo futuro.” ¿Son palabra no más, o expresan bien tu fe en la resurrección? Realmente, ¿qué significa para ti creer en la resurrección?

Frecuentemente individuos que profesan su fe en la resurrección piensan más en la muerte que en la vida eterna. Tienen miedo de la muerte. Conocemos esta vida y no queremos perderla aunque la vida futura promete ser mucho mejor; será un mundo nuevo donde no habrá muerte y donde las relaciones se fundamentarán en un amor gratuito y fraterno. Es el amor del Reino, y es posible empezar a vivir ese amor aquí. Pruébalo, te va a gustar. En la vida eterna viviremos ese amor en su plenitud. Ahora tenemos que formar relaciones con los demás aquí y en este mundo que indican que somos discípulos de Jesucristo. Ese seguimiento fiel de Jesucristo nos va a llevar a la vida eterna con Dios.

Valientes, sigan esforzándose por serle fieles a Dios, siendo justos, honrados, caritativos, serviciales, y siempre listos de luchar de nuevo a mejorar sus acciones. Hay que fijar los ojos en el premio final: unión con Dios. Toda la lucha vale la pena. Hay resurrección y otra vida. Hermana Kay

Advent Giving Tree

Advent quickly approaches and we would like to offer the

Adopt -A- Family

Option again this year!

For those of you with extra generous hearts, this opportunity worked very well last year to insure all children in one family were equally gifted.

Please keep in mind, when selecting a tag from the tree, and wishing to gift more generously than the one item for a $20-$25 value, you may be gifting one child from one family more generously than all of their siblings.

If you are interested in the Adopt -A-Family option, Contact Nona Kelly by November 22nd.
