The Mass and the Cross of Christ

My Dear People,

The calendar year ends in less than two months, but the Church year ends in two weeks. You may notice that the readings for the last several weeks have focused on both the reality of death, the promise of the resurrection, and the ultimate coming of Christ at the end of the world. Next week we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, the last Sunday of the Church year, before the season of Advent arrives. Advent reminds us of the time at the beginning of human history where the world awaited the coming of a Savior. But before the yearly cycle of grace begins anew, we must recall and reflect upon, not beginnings, but endings.

Last week I wrote to you about the importance of the Mass as an integral and essential way that we pray for our beloved dead. Why is this? Well, because the Mass is the most powerful and effective prayer; it is the prayer of Christ Himself that we have the privilege of participating in. What is central to our worship at Mass is not first what we do, but what Christ does. As in all the seven Sacraments, Christ is the ultimate one acting. The crowning masterpiece of the seven Sacraments is the Eucharist, where Christ is present, not only the moment that the Sacrament is enacted, but in a permanent presence through the outward appearance of bread and wine, but which is in fact His most sacred Body and Blood.

This Eucharistic presence comes from the Mass. What is the Mass? It is more than a meal where we remember what Jesus did some 2,000 years ago. It is the mystical, unbloody representation of His saving death on Calvary. You notice in the Eucharistic prayer that the priest constantly refers to the saving sacrifice on the altar. Earlier, he invites the people to pray saying: "Pray that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the Father Almighty". This sacrifice isn't our own, but the sacrifice of the Cross which we are given access to once again through the Liturgical action. But it becomes "ours" as we join ourselves, our lives, and our worship to the perfect sacrifice of Jesus. His sacrifice truly becomes "ours" because it was done "for us", to save us and forgive our sins. This is why Christ said, on the eve of His Passion, when the Mass was instituted, "This is my Body, given for you". The Mass is not a new sacrifice, but it makes present again mystically the sacrifice of our redemption.

Since the Mass is the Cross, it has all the saving power of the Cross to forgive sins and heal. And we apply this power for our beloved dead. May we see with the eyes of Faith the great "mystery" which happens daily in our churches and recognize the One Who is both our beginning and our end.

Fr Walter

Muchos Vendrán Usurpando Mi Nombre

Jesús advertía a sus discípulos, “Cuidense de que nadie los engañe, porque muchos vendrán usurpando mi nombre y dirán: ‘Yo soy el Mesías. El tiempo ha llegado.’ Pero no les hagan caso.” Como Jesús dijo, todavía no ha llegado el tiempo.

Al final del siglo pasado algunos pensaban que el mundo iba a terminar también. Durante los años desde Jesucristo vivió en este mundo, mucha gente había dicho que pronto el mundo terminaría. Pero todavía no. Hay que vivir el mensaje de Jesucristo. Estamos bien, si sigamos la Buena Nueva de Jesucristo.

Recientemente leyó lo que sigue. No sé quién lo escribió. Puede ser que ustedes han estado metidos en algo de lo siguiente:

“...y llamarán a la puerta de ustedes y tratarán de venderles revistas (o se las regalarán) y los invitarán a leer y estudiar la Biblia, primero en casa y después en un lugar especial...

...y les dirán que estudien la Biblia con ellos porque tienen la fórmula infalible para salvarse...

...o se les acercarán en lugares públicos y les repartirán folletos en los cuales, al final, se les invita a tal o cual reunión para saber más sobre el tema del folleto.

...o los abordarán en cualquier lugar y les preguntarán si están seguros de su salvación, y les dirán que la única forma de estarlo es aceptar a Cristo en su vida y ya...

...o escucharán pláticas en las que se habla de Cristo, pero no del Cristo que padeció y murió por nosotros, sino del Cristo cósmico, que se encarnó en Buda, en Jesús, en Mahoma...

...otros les contarán que estamos entrando en un Nueva Era de amor y de paz, y que hay muchos maestros e instructores reencarnados.

Ustedes, respétenlos; generalmente son personas de buena voluntad, PERO NO LES HAGAN CASO.”

Sí, es importante que conozcan a Jesucristo, por eso yo les animo leer la Biblia, leer las notas al pie de la página. Intentan conocer a Jesucristo, participen en un grupo que estudia y reflexiona sobre la Biblia. Conozcan también su fe y cómo pueden ser fieles a Dios.
