Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CDD RLP

My Dear People,

You often hear Father Tedesche and me tell you how the seven Sacraments are powerful. Or, in the words of one of my wise professors from seminary- "the Sacraments do something!" One of the Sacraments which gets little attention, but which we will all need at some point, is the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, sometimes referred to as "Last Rites". As a priest, I have been called many times to the bedside of a sick or dying person, and know how important it is that all of us take advantage of this holy anointing when needed.

First, we remember what a Sacrament is in general. A classic definition is that each Sacrament is an outward sign, instituted by Christ Himself, which brings God's grace. Each of these elements is essential. Every Sacrament has an exterior reality which acts as a sign of an interior, or spiritual change that is taking place. Next, we see that each Sacrament was given to the Church by Jesus Himself, to help us both live well and get to heaven. Above all, the Sacraments give God's grace by the very fact that they are administered. Even if the priest is not holy, if he does what the Church requires for each Sacrament, God will give His grace and help, He has promised to do so.

Christ walked the earth 2,000 years ago and worked miracles, healing people and forgiving their sins. He is still working, healing, and helping in every Sacrament, but now He is "hidden" by sacred signs and ceremonies. But just as Christ required faith in every person He healed or helped, for us to get or receive God's power and grace in the Sacraments, we need to believe that He is there and be open to His power. The Sacraments are not magic. If we are to encounter Christ in them, we must choose to do so; He has promised He will be there to meet us, but we have to recognize His action.

The Anointing of the Sick has a twofold purpose: it can help heal the body if that is God's will, but it especially heals the soul and forgives sin. It gives strength to bear the sufferings from sickness, and unite them to Jesus' sufferings. While this Sacrament is not only for those close to death, it is nonetheless very important to call a priest as soon as possible if someone is seriously ill. Many people wait until the last minute, when the person is no longer conscious. This is certainly better than nothing, but it is preferable if the person can be aware of what's happening. However, God can work in the soul of the person even if the body seems unresponsive.

Miracles are still happening, and I see them often as a priest! I have seen healing of the body, and ever more stupendous healing of the soul. We shouldn't be surprised. Jesus promised it, and surely, He keeps His word!

Fr Walter

LA PAZ COMO CAMINO DE ESPERANZA

Mensaje del Papa Francisco sobre la Paz (1/1/2020)

Muchos ofrecen en todo el mundo a las generaciones futuras el servicio esencial de la memoria, que debe mantenerse no sólo para evitar cometer nuevamente los mismos errores, sino para que esta, fruto de la experiencia, constituya la raíz y sugiera el camino para las decisiones de paz presentes y futuras. La memoria es el horizonte de la esperanza: muchas veces, en la oscuridad de guerras y conflictos, el recuerdo de un pequeño gesto de solidaridad recibido puede inspirar también opciones valientes e incluso heroicas, puede poner en marcha nuevas energías y reavivar una nueva esperanza tanto en los individuos como en las comunidades.

Abrir y trazar un camino de paz es un desafío muy complejo. En primer lugar, es necesario apelar a la conciencia moral y a la voluntad personal y política. La paz, en efecto, brota de las profundidades del corazón humano y la voluntad política siempre necesita revitalización, para abrir nuevos procesos que reconcilien y unan a las personas y las comunidades.

El mundo no necesita palabras vacías, sino testigos convencidos, artesanos de la paz abiertos al diálogo sin exclusión ni manipulación... La paz «debe edificarse continuamente», un camino que hacemos juntos buscando siempre el bien común y comprometiéndonos a cumplir nuestra palabra y respetar las leyes. El conocimiento y la estima por los demás también pueden crecer en la escucha mutua, hasta el punto de reconocer en el enemigo el rostro de un hermano.

El proceso de paz es un compromiso constante en el tiempo. Es un trabajo paciente que busca la verdad y la justicia, que honra la memoria de las víctimas y que se abre, paso a paso, a una esperanza común, más fuerte que la venganza. La democracia puede ser un paradigma significativo de este proceso, si se basa en la justicia y en el compromiso de salvaguardar los derechos de cada uno, especialmente si es débil o marginado, en la búsqueda continua de la verdad. Es una construcción social y una tarea en progreso, en la que cada uno contribuye responsablemente a todos los niveles.

...La brecha entre los miembros de una sociedad, el aumento de las desigualdades sociales y la negativa a utilizar las herramientas para el desarrollo humano integral ponen en peligro la búsqueda del bien común. En cambio, el trabajo paciente basado en el poder de la palabra y la verdad puede despertar en las personas la capacidad de compasión y solidaridad creativa.

En nuestra experiencia cristiana, recordamos constantemente a Cristo, quien dio su vida por nuestra reconciliación. La Iglesia participa plenamente en la búsqueda de un orden justo, y continúa sirviendo al bien común y alimentando la esperanza de paz a través de la transmisión de los valores cristianos, la enseñanza moral y las obras sociales y educativas. Podemos preguntarnos si como cristianos:

¿Soy justo y digo la verdad en mis acciones? ¿Lo que hago es para el bien común o es para alimentar mi ego? ¿Uso bien el poder de la palabra y la escucha? Tenemos que servir a los demás y escuchar sus ideas. Hay que ser paciente en diálogo y no pensar inmediatamente en venganza y no pelear y pisar encima.

Hermana Kay

Los católicos hablan por los vulnerables: opóngase al suicidio asistido por un médico en el estado de Nueva York

La próxima semana tendrá la oportunidad de firmar nuestra petición de fin de semana de políticas públicas de toda la diócesis en oposición al suicidio asistido por un médico. La misma leerá: Me opongo firmemente a cualquier legislación para legalizar el suicidio asistido en el estado de Nueva York. Permitir que los médicos receten una dosis letal para que los pacientes terminen sus vidas devalúa la vida humana. También hay un potencial significativo de abuso. En su lugar, le insto a que se concentre en mejorar los cuidados paliativos, para garantizar una atención compasiva e integral y el manejo del dolor para las personas con enfermedades terminales. Necesitamos acompañarlos en lugar de abandonarlos.
