My Dear People,

When someone tells you to be prudent, what does that usually mean? Be cautious, go slowly, or be careful? But when we hear the word “prudent” in the Bible, it means much more than to be careful or cautious. In fact, Biblical, or Christian prudence is a virtue, and it is a virtue that we need as much as an engine needs oil to run smoothly.

As we commonly use it, prudence often implies the very opposite of courage or daring; wouldn’t we find it odd to call a fearless soldier “prudent”? Yet Christian prudence is not just a human quality, nor is it cautiousness, but it is “supernatural”, meaning, something God gives to enable us to see and act beyond a merely human way. If it is a gift, like all gifts God gives us, we must cooperate and accept it so that it bears fruit. Furthermore, prudence is absolutely necessary for us to live a Christian life and follow Jesus. Why? Prudence inclines our intellect to choose in every instance the best means for achieving our goal of eternal life and salvation. Thus, we are helped to subordinate, or put in order, the things of our life towards that purpose. What does that mean? Prudence makes us truly wise, according to God’s wisdom. We see things as they are in God’s eyes and are enabled to go about the practical day-to-day living out of our Catholic Faith. Prudence aids us in seeing the persons, circumstances, and challenges of the real world as they really are. We also see and acknowledge ourselves as we are, not as we imagine ourselves to be.

Think about it for a moment. God gives us the general road signs on how to live in a relationship with Him by the 10 Commandments, and the teaching of the Church in Faith and Morals. But life is full of a thousand varied problems, obstacles, and factors which call for spiritual ‘street smarts’ on how to do what God wants, and what is best for us and others. We know we must love our neighbor, but how do we actually do that? Prudence shows us what the practical application of that love needs to look like.

When a Christian is truly prudent, he is playing to win and knows how to do it. But to obtain this prudence, we need to ask God for it- every day! Life comes at us whether we want it to or not, and many decisions have multiple and lasting consequences. Praying to the Holy Spirit for prudence opens our hearts and souls to receive, little by little, a spiritual sixth sense. Far from making us overly cautious, it gives us vision for wise choices which are enlightened by our Faith. Prudence will not make us tread slowly, but run, swiftly and surely, into God’s arms.

Fr Walter

LA PAZ COMO CAMINO DE ESPERANZA

Vamos a continuar con el mensaje del Papa Francisco sobre la paz. “La Biblia a través de los profetas, llama a las conciencias y a los pueblos a la alianza de Dios con la humanidad. Se trata de abandonar el deseo de dominar a los demás y aprender a verse como personas, como hijos de Dios, como hermanos. Nunca se debe encasillar al otro por lo que pudo decir o hacer, sino que debe ser considerado por la promesa que lleva dentro de él. Sólo eligiendo el camino del respeto será posible romper la espiral de venganza y emprender el camino de la esperanza.

Nos guía el pasaje del Evangelio que muestra el siguiente diálogo entre Pedro y Jesús: «“Señor, si mi hermano me ofende, ¿cuántas veces tengo que perdonarlo? ¿Hasta siete veces?”. Jesús le contesta: “No te digo hasta siete veces, sino hasta setenta veces siete”» (Mt 18,21-22). Este camino de reconciliación nos llama a encontrar en lo más profundo de nuestros corazones la fuerza del perdón y la capacidad de reconocernos como hermanos y hermanas. Aprender a vivir en el perdón aumenta nuestra capacidad de convertirnos en mujeres y hombres de paz.

...nunca habrá una paz verdadera a menos que seamos capaces de construir un sistema económico más justo. Como escribió Papa Benedicto XVI «La victoria sobre el subdesarrollo requiere actuar no sólo en la mejora de las transacciones basadas en la compraventa, o en las transferencias de las estructuras asistenciales de carácter público, sino sobre todo en la apertura progresiva a formas de actividad económica caracterizada por ciertos márgenes de gratuidad y comunión».

La paz, camino de conversión ecológica

«Si una mala comprensión de nuestros propios principios a veces nos ha llevado a justificar el maltrato a la naturaleza o el dominio despótico del ser humano sobre lo creado o las guerras, la injusticia y la violencia, los creyentes podemos reconocer que de esa manera hemos sido infieles al tesoro de sabiduría que debíamos custodiar».

Ante las consecuencias de nuestra hostilidad hacia los demás, la falta de respeto por la casa común y la explotación abusiva de los recursos naturales —vistos como herramientas útiles únicamente para el beneficio inmediato, sin respeto por las comunidades locales, por el bien común y por la naturaleza—, necesitamos una conversión ecológica.

Tenemos que renovar la llamada a una relación pacífica entre las comunidades y la tierra, entre el presente y la memoria, entre las experiencias y las esperanzas. Este camino de reconciliación es también escucha y contemplación del mundo que Dios nos dio para convertirlo en nuestra casa común.”

Piense en su propia vida: ¿Tiene la fuerza del perdón? ¿Puede reconocer al otro como su hermano(a) y vivir en perdón y convertirse en persona de paz? Hermana Kay

Los católicos hablan por los vulnerables: opóngase al suicidio asistido por un médico en el estado de Nueva York

Usted puede ser una voz para los vulnerables HOY. En las palabras de nuestro obispo Salvator Matano,

“Cuando determinamos subjetivamente cuándo comienza y termina la vida, cuándo es viable o no, o cuándo subjetivamente demasiado pesada para soportar, comenzamos un camino hacia la autodestrucción. La vida ya no es preciosa, sino simplemente otra mercancía en el negocio de la vida. El relativismo se convierte en lo absoluto, e incluso se cuestiona el valor de la vida misma.”

Hoy en día, usted puede apoyar a los vulnerables en nuestra comunidad que son mejor atendidos al mejorar nuestro sistema de cuidados paliativos, no la legalización del suicidio asistido por un médico. Ponga su fe en acción, deles su voz y tómese el tiempo para firmar la petición que será entregada al gobernador y a nuestros representantes en el senado y la asamblea de Nueva York.
