My Dear People,

This is my last bulletin article. I think everyone has learned by now that I have been transferred to St John of Rochester parish in Fairport to be the assistant priest there with Fr Peter Clifford. I ask for your prayers that God use me in whatever way He wants in my new assignment, just as I hope He has used me here to be His instrument. Thank you for all the good things you have done for me, may God Himself reward you for it.

One year has seemed a very short time to be with you, especially since three months of this year were under the quarantine when we did not see each other, apart from computer videos. As Fr Tedesche explained, priests are at the service of the Diocese. The Bishop, who is the chief Shepherd of all the souls under his care, places priests as needed in different places to share this task. The shortage of priests makes the Bishop's job of assigning priests to cover even more challenging. He has many considerations in mind that we may often be unaware of—there are many moving parts to coordinate in a Diocese of 12 counties, both among the parishes and the priests themselves.

One year is very short, I know, but it is also a long time. What do I mean by this? I mean, God's time is different than ours. In a single instant He can change the world, and years upon years are but a single instant in His eyes. Most of you know I have a great devotion to St Joseph, and have consecrated my vocation to the priesthood to him. I asked St Joseph, even before my ordination, that I would do the work he desired me to do in my first assignment. What that work is or was, I am not entirely sure, you may know better than me! What I do know is that God uses the smallest things to make a big difference. Whatever it is that St Joseph, (who is working for God obviously) wanted me to do with you and for you, I trust he has done. Whatever it is that St Joseph wanted me to receive from you, to learn from you, to grow from you, he has had his time to accomplish, even with my hard head! Priests need the people as much as people need to the priest. We need you because our identity and mission is to bring you closer to God and help you stay close to Him. We continue the mission and work of Jesus, take His place even, to do it. But we, (I) find God by serving you just as you find Him through us (me). A priest needs to get people to heaven in order to go there himself.

Life is short, in an 'instant' it will be done. Yet relationships with people, if they are joined in the love of Jesus, will never end. Let us be joined in the love of Jesus. Such bonds are forever.

Fr Walter

This is the day the Lord has made, Let us Rejoice and be glad.

We are happy to be together again! We have missed you all! Below is our Mass schedule. We are limited to around 120 people at each Mass, with social distancing. You are not obligated to go to Sunday Mass at this time. The Bishop encourages people to go to daily Mass to help with the overflow of Sunday Masses. Please do not sit where there is tape across a pew. Also, please remember to practice these few guidelines, below, when coming to Mass. These are for the safety of you and others.

- ⇒ If you don't feel well, please stay home.
- ⇒ Please wear a mask.
- ⇒ Wash your hands with sanitizer when you enter into the church.
- ⇒ Please remain 6 feet apart from each other. Please sit in open pews.

Please don't forget to wear your masks!

The church will be cleaned after each Mass for everyone's protection.

Amen.

St. Michael Parish Center will open on Monday, July 6th, 8:30 am-4:30 pm closing for lunch between 12-1 pm. To avoid people having to come into the office, we will conduct business through the window on the porch. There will be signs to indicate which window. If you do need to come in for something that can't be handled at the window, of course, all safety regulations must have to be followed. We look forward to seeing you.

Catholic Relief Services is counting on our Rice Bowl alms to help brothers and sisters in-need around the world, especially in these challenging times. Now that we are reopening for church, please bring your Rice Bowl alms to church, if you have not already done so. Please convert the coins and dollars from your box into a check payable to St. Michael Church with a note on the check, CRS Rice Bowl. This will just speed up the process of getting the funds collected to the Catholic Relief Services.

Thank you for your many sacrifices during Lent. Through your alms given to Catholic Relief Services, we become a blessing for others. What we gave up for Lent will change lives!

Quien Diere ...No Perderá Su Recompensa

¿Medimos lo que hacemos para los demás, esperando recibir las gracias o dejamos salir de nosotros libremente el amor, la generosidad, la acogida y la hospitalidad? En la primera lectura de hoy encontramos la hospitalidad de la mujer de Sunem quien hizo una habitación para Eliseo para que él tuviera su propia habitación cuando visitaba a la mujer y su esposo. Ella vio algo que podría ayudar al profeta sentirse más cómodo y bien acogido durante su estadía en la casa de ella, y ella lo hizo con toda bondad, sin pensar en la recompensa. Pero Eliseo quería hacer algo para ella en recompensa porque el gesto de la pareja fue algo grande. La señora no tenía hijos lo que en esa cultura fue una desgracia para una mujer sufrir. Eliseo anuncia su futura maternidad que sería un don de Dios. ¡Una recompensa no esperada!

Jesús había dicho a sus apóstoles que los que pierdan su vida por él, la salvará. ¿Estamos listos para dar y dar y dar de nosotros durante toda la vida? "Quien los recibe a ustedes me recibe a mí; y quien me recibe a mí, recibe al que me ha enviado." Piénsalo. ¿Cómo recibes a los demás? No importa de donde es la persona, ni el idioma que habla, ni el color de su piel, ni el género, ni si es rico o pobre... Es una persona creada por Dios y merece nuestra acogida, nuestra bondad, nuestro amor, nuestra ayuda, nuestro respeto... ¿Cómo acoges a la persona desconocida? ¿Qué das al otro: algo material (como un vaso de agua fría en el evangelio o alguna comida) o prestas atenciones por escucharle o lo ayuda a llevar algo o ubicar alguna calle o una persona o...? Los seguidores de Cristo vamos a actuar según las instrucciones de Jesucristo y lo que nosotros hacemos por alguien aquí, ojalá que podamos ver a Dios dentro de la persona. Lo hacemos por la persona y por Cristo. La acogida o la hospitalidad entregada recibirá la recompensa. Realmente estamos recibiendo a Cristo a quien no vemos.

¿Otras personas se sienten bienvenidas en nuestra presencia? Hay que cuestionarnos: ¿cómo estamos con otras y cómo actuamos hacia otras? ¿Vivimos una hospitalidad cristiana? Perdón por todas las preguntas que hago, pero es una manera de examinarnos como discípulos de Cristo. Es bueno al final de cada día pensar en dónde o en quién hemos encontrado a Dios y cómo hemos respondido a esa presencia. ¡Que pasen buena semana!

Hermana Kay

Family Ministry

Gospel Reading Matthew 10:37-42

Jesus outlines the costs and rewards of discipleship.

One can tell a lot about a family by the way they welcome others into their home. Despite parental efforts to elicit the best behavior from their children, family efforts to entertain guests are sometimes difficult. Practicing a spirit of Christian hospitality within the family can be an occasion to reflect upon the importance of this virtue. A family spirit of hospitality is a sign of faith.

When your family gathers, ask each person to consider the following questions about manners: What does it mean to be a good host? What does it mean to be a good guest? Invite each person to share their thoughts and experiences about being a guest or a host. When they have finished, read aloud today's Gospel, Matthew 10:37-42.

Ask family members to describe what Jesus says about hospitality extended to his disciples. (Those who receive Jesus' disciples also receive Jesus himself; hospitality to Jesus' disciples will be rewarded.) Then encourage family members to talk about what it means to be a good guest or a good host. You might also talk about ways in which your family's hospitality might be improved upon. Conclude in prayer together that your family grows to be one in which Christian hospitality is experienced by all. Pray together the Lord's Prayer or today's Psalm
