SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." — Mt. 13:44

Excerpt from the Sacrament for Peace (2000), 1998, 1999, 2000

Long warm days...
The pace of life slows...
A time for picnics and rest in the shade...
Lord, help me to rest awhile
in the cooling shade of your presence.
Slow down my restless heart and fill me with gentle compassion for all your people.
Amen.

¡Gracias, Espíritu Santo!

A veces nos sentimos sin la capacidad de responder a todo lo que Dios, el trabajo, la familia, los amigos, la Iglesia, la vecindad, la escuela, la caridad, la justicia, la sociedad... piden de nosotros. ¿Cómo es posible ser un buen cristiano cuando hay un sin número de actividades y maneras de responder a las necesidades que nos esperan? Pensemos, bueno una cosa a la vez. Una cosa, y después de esta, yo responderé con todo mi ser a la próxima cosa. Sí, hay días cuando es corre, corre. A la vez sabemos que debemos descansar porque si no descansamos, el estrés va a causarnos actuar y hablar como no queremos. Hay que amar a otros y también a sí mismo.

En el primer libro de los Reyes Dios aparece a Salomón y le dice, "Pídeme lo que quieras." Salomón, siendo joven todavía y sabiendo que Dios lo amaba, no sabía cómo conducirse frente al pueblo, por eso contestó, "Dame un espíritu atento, para gobernar bien a tu pueblo y para decidir entre lo bueno y lo malo, porque si no, ¿cómo podría gobernar este pueblo tan grande?" Y Dios se le dio.

Hay que saber qué pedir de Dios para poder hacer bien todo lo que otros esperan. Nuestra ayuda viene de Dios. Es el Espíritu Santo quien está a nuestro lado y dentro de nosotros guiándonos en los tiempos difíciles y los tiempos contentos. Tenemos que usar bien todos los dones que el Espíritu nos da. Como Salomón debemos estar conscientes del poder que viene del Espíritu Santo y pedir su ayuda.

Un espíritu—un corazón—atento a otros: hay que escuchar bien, analizar y responder desde el don del Espíritu, desde un corazón atento a las necesidades y preocupaciones de otros. No podemos responder rápidamente al individuo, porque cada hijo o hija es diferente con distintas necesidades; cada amigo ha tenido una familia diferente con distintas maneras de crianza, diferentes valores; cada organización tiene su meta, su causa, su porqué de existir y tenemos que ver cómo mejor cooperar, usando nuestros gustos, dones, tiempo y creatividad. No podemos hacer todo lo que otros esperan de nosotros, pero sí, podemos hacer mucho y hacerlo con amor, bondad, paciencia, y generosidad.

Dios está con nosotros en los tiempos buenos y los tiempos malos. Después de pasar por los tiempos malos, podemos mirar para atrás y muchas veces ver bien la acción de Dios y cómo habíamos crecido como personas durante los tiempos difíciles. ¿Nuestra respuesta? ¡Gracias, Dios!

Family Ministry

Gospel Reading Matthew 13:44-52

Jesus teaches about the Kingdom of Heaven.

Like the person who found the buried treasure and the merchant who acquired the pearl of great price, we seek to find the signs of the kingdom of heaven in our lives. In fact, we even work to bring about God's kingdom in our actions and in our words. We pray that our family values reflect our pursuit of the kingdom of heaven. As Jesus' disciples, we place everything we value in the service of the pursuit of the Kingdom of God.

As you gather as a family, talk about what your family values. Make a list together of those things that your family considers most important, such as family, friends, faith, trust, and love. Place this list before you as you read today's Gospel in its shorter form, Matthew 13:44-46. In these parables, Jesus teaches us that it is worth giving up even valuable things in order to possess the kingdom of heaven. Look at the list your family made and talk about how these things are important to the kingdom of heaven. What has your family given up to make these values important in your life? As Jesus' disciples, we place everything we value in the service of the pursuit of the Kingdom of God. Pray together for God's kingdom by praying the Lord's Prayer.
