Welcome back! We are limited to the number of people at each Mass, with social distancing. You are not obligated to go to Sunday Mass at this time. The Bishop encourages people to go to daily Mass to help with the overflow of Sunday Masses. Please do not sit where there is tape across a pew. Also, please remember to practice these few guidelines, below, when coming to Mass. These are for the safety of you and others.

- ⇒ If you don't feel well, please stay home.
- ⇒ Please wear a mask.
- ⇒ Wash your hands with sanitizer when you enter & when leaving the church.
- ⇒ Please remain 6 feet apart from each other. Please sit in open pews.

The church will be cleaned after each Mass for everyone's protection.

My dear brothers and sisters,

It was around 2 am on Tuesday, July 14th, when a call from my father Michael woke me up from a sound sleep. My mother Margaret had taken a very bad fall, had sustained a serious head injury, and had been rushed to Strong Memorial Hospital. Five days later, she had passed away. Eight days later, I was celebrating her funeral Mass. A little over two weeks later, my father and brother were saying our goodbyes to my sister as she departed to fly back to Alaska. In this short period of time, much had happened and had come to an end: hospital visits, endless conversations with family, friends, doctors, and trusted advisors concerning difficult end-of-life decisions, funeral planning, a funeral, a burial, the redistribution of my mother's personal property, and much more.

Yes, in this short period of time, much had happened and much came to an end. However, some things still remain: sorrow and grief in our family, especially on the part of my father who misses his dear wife of 54 years, a large empty family house in Ontario that we are debating whether or not to sell, the memories of the day and the moment life support was removed from my mother, an experience that, as my sister said at the funeral, had "changed our family forever."

And yet, other things remain: the life and love that my mother gave me and my family, her example as a good person and a good Catholic, and her prayers and spiritual presence. For example, as I write this, I can see to my right, laying on my desk, my mother's prayer book that I will use and cherish for the rest of my life until, Lord willing, I am reunited with her again in heaven. In something so simple as this little prayer book, she remains with me.

And something else remains: the overwhelming love and care of extended family, friends, brother priests, parish staff, and you my parishioners. Your sympathy cards, texts, emails, oral communications, hugs, meals and everything else have been so amazing and life-giving. My family and I can't thank you enough. Up until this point, I have ministered to you all in your many losses and experiences of bereavement. I will continue to do so. However, I will do so now as one who is a fellow mourner, able all the more so to identify with you and be one with you in your sorrows. And in this communion, together we will find hope and peace. Many things pass away on this earth, and yet truth, goodness, and love remain. In this love, we remain united with each other and with our beloved departed whom we can't see anymore but whom we will one day see again. "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord." "And let perpetual light shine upon them." "May they rest in peace." "Amen." "May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace." "Amen."

Thank you,

Fr. David Tedeschi

¿Estamos Viviendo Nuestra Fe?

Hace algunos años fuimos bautizados en la fe que Jesucristo nos regaló. Fue verdaderamente un regalo; no pagamos nada. Pero nuestros padres prometieron criarnos en la fe que ellos profesaron por responder "sí" a la creencia a las palabras del Credo.

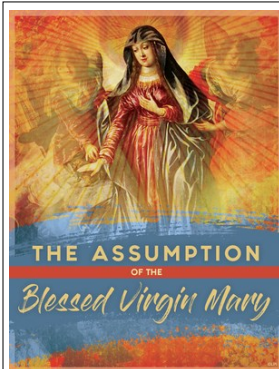

Nadie nos ha forzado aceptar la fe; se ha sido ofrecido a nosotros desde ese día de nuestro bautismo. De a poco vamos entendiéndola, aceptándola y actuando según la fe y profundizando la fe en nuestras vidas y corazones. Se acuerdan de que Jesús habló de la semilla de mostaza—una semilla muy pequeña, pero tenía mucha potencial de vida dentro de sí. Pero para que produzca vida, hay que plantarla y regarla, y de a poco puede ver que la semilla crece a un arbusto o árbol de 6 a 20 pies en altura. Podemos pensar en la semilla como el comienzo del reino de Dios. Nuestro Dios nos da esa semilla pequeña de fe dentro de nosotros; Dios nos habla con amor, y ese amor crece dentro de nosotros. Tenemos que aceptar la semilla de fe, alimentarla por nuestra respuesta a Dios, y seguir fielmente respondiendo a Dios para que haya una relación personal y profunda. Esa relación tendría que manifestarse afuera de nosotros, vivida por nuestras acciones basadas en la fe en Dios quien es amor. Dios se comunica su ser a nosotros. Ojalá que respondamos confiadamente a ese Dios que descubrimos en esta relación e intentemos cumplir su voluntad en nuestras vidas.

Yo diría que la fe es nuestra respuesta a Dios; no solamente un sentimiento o una ideología, sino una manera de relacionarnos a Dios. "Aquí estoy, mi Dios." "Jesucristo, yo te acepto en las situaciones difíciles y fáciles." "Gracias, mi Dios por ser tan generoso conmigo; yo creo en Ti; yo te amo." "Dios, yo sé que tú estás presente, acompañándome y animándome." "Háblame, mi Dios, yo te escucho."

"En Ti pongo mi corazón, Dios Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo." Escuchen a Dios en su propia oración, en la oración de la Misa, en la naturaleza, en la música y arte y también en los mensajes de los evangelios. Dios nos habla de una variedad de maneras. Estén atentos para que crezca su fe.

Family Promise Volunteers Needed

Family Promise of Wayne County is a non-profit organization that exists to help families with children experiencing temporary homelessness find permanent housing and achieve self-sustainability. FPWC has been in existence since October 2018. As a local affiliate of the national Family Promise with over 200 Affiliates in 43 states, 18 families and 35 children have transitioned through our program as of July 2020.

A network of local host congregations provides overnight shelter, dinner meals and hospitality to up to four guest families comprising no more than 14 individuals. During the day, families leave the congregation and use the Day Resource Center in Lyons where professional staff offer case management and resources. Shower and laundry facilities are available at the Day Resource Center. Hosting rotates among 10-13 congregations and families in the program stay at each congregation for a week at a time, usually four times a year. An average length of stay for a family in the programs is 50 days.

During these days of the COVID-19 pandemic Family Promise has alternatively provided short term apartment rentals where families are "sheltering in place." Host congregations are continuing to provide dinner meals, other food items, and creative hospitality. St. Michael's, along with other local churches, hopes to build a strong base of volunteers who are willing to help provide meals for these families in need. We are scheduled to host for the first time starting, Sunday, 9/13, for one week. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Michelle Malach at mrmalach68@gmail.com or call/text 585-507-0870, or Carol Archunde at NY742@yahoo.com or call 607-661-8783.
