26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We are limited to the number of people at each Mass, with social distancing. You are not obligated to go to Sunday Mass at this time. The Bishop encourages people to go to daily Mass to help with the overflow of Sunday Masses. Please do not sit where there is tape across a pew. Also, please remember to practice these few guidelines, below, when coming to Mass. These are for the safety of you and others.

- ⇒ If you don't feel well, please stay home.
- ⇒ Please wear a mask in church at all times. This protects all, especially our elderly.
- ⇒ Wash your hands with sanitizer when you enter & when leaving the church.
- ⇒ Please remain 6 feet apart from each other. Please sit in open pews.

The church will be cleaned after each Mass for everyone's protection.

Fr. Mike's Message...

Raise your hand if you have ever said or done anything to someone that you immediately regretted.

My guess is that just about everyone who is reading this is either raising their hand or at least nodding in agreement. We all make mistakes; we all say and do things that we wish we could take back. But of course, we can't take it back. When we say or do something hurtful to someone, the guilt can eat away at us. It becomes a huge weight on our shoulders, a terrible burden to bear. The same is true with our sins. Our sins are our offenses against God, and the guilt of our sins can weigh us down as much as an offense against a family member or close friend. Often, however, we don't even realize how much it is affecting us, until we go to the sacrament of confession and feel the weight lift off our shoulders. I have said this before, but there have been times where I have seen people almost float out of the confessional after their confession, because they feel so much lighter and freer with the weight of sin off their shoulders.

Just as we need forgiveness from God, so to do we need to forgive others who wronged us. God forgives us our sins because he loves us so much. All he asks is that we show that same type of compassion and love to others. So, if you are struggling to forgive someone who has wronged you, or are still holding on to a grudge, I encourage you to try and let go of that anger and bitterness. Seek them out and try for a reconciliation. Even if they haven't yet asked you for forgiveness, seek them out anyway. They might not know how to approach you to apologize. The pain that is eating at you might also be eating at them as well. That simple act of forgiveness might be able to bring healing to both you and the other person as well. Share God's merciful loving spirit as often as you can. Remember, to err is human, but to forgive is divine.

IT'S HAPPENING....

FALL RUMMAGE SALE 2020 OCTOBER 13- OCTOBER 17

Set up begins the weekend of October 3rd.

Marking begins on Monday, October 5th at 9 am.

We are going to need more help this year. To make the church hall not so crowded we will also be putting up a tent outside. Any help you can give for set-up, marking and during the sale would be so appreciated.

Don't forget to wear your masks!

SUPPORT OF THIS BIG EVENT!

Los Ángeles en la Vida de la Iglesia

Esta semana, 29 de sept., vamos a celebrar la fiesta de los arcángeles Miguel, Gabriel y Rafael. Ellos no son como otros santos porque no fueron personas corporales. No hablamos de sus padres ni de donde eran. Son unos de los seres espirituales que las Sagradas Escrituras llamaba ángeles; la existencia de ellos es una verdad de fe. No podemos verlos; son criaturas de Dios entre sus criaturas visibles e invisibles. Son pocos que tienen nombres: Miguel, Gabriel, Rafael y Uriel. Por el anuncio a María por el arcángel Gabriel sabemos más de Gabriel que de Miguel o Rafael. Hay una oración a Miguel creada por el Papa León XIII en la cual pedimos a Miguel por la fuerza para defendernos contra el mal en el mundo y en nuestras vidas. Miguel significa "el que se parece a Dios." Hemos visto dibujos de Miguel, el jefe de los ejércitos de Dios, con un traje de soldado romano, y con una espada y alas grandes y doradas. San Miguel es el jefe de los ejércitos de Dios; frecuentemente es representado con un pie en la cabeza de demonios, con su espada en alto listo para combatirlos.

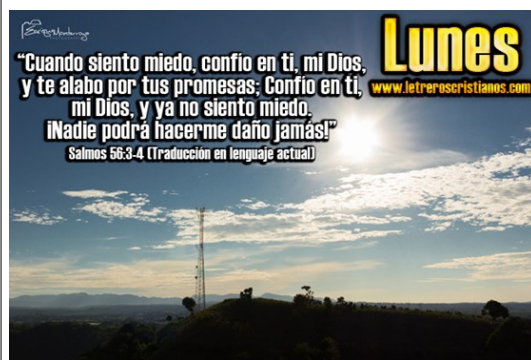

Encontramos a Miguel en el libro de Apocalipsis como capitán de los ejércitos de Dios triunfando sobre los demonios, expulsándolos del cielo, y arrojándolos sobre la tierra. Vendrá un tiempo de gran liberación en el futuro, pero mientras tanto vamos enfrentando el mal, y es posible pedir la ayuda de San Miguel:

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio. Que Dios manifieste sobre él su poder, es nuestra humilde súplica. Y tú, oh, Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial, con el poder que Dios te ha conferido, arroja al infierno a Satanás, y a los demás espíritus malignos que vagan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

Es verdad que los ángeles son muy importantes en la Iglesia, pero son criaturas de Dios, por lo que no se les puede igualar a Dios ni adorarlos como si fueran dioses. Según la enseñanza de la Iglesia hay muchos ángeles que sirven como custodios de los seres humanos, ayudándonos estar mas cerca de Dios, protegiéndonos, guiándonos, asistiéndonos en la vida diaria. Según San Jerónimo cada persona desde su nacimiento tiene un ángel para su custodia y para guiarlo. Teniendo por la oración una relación más sólida con Dios, es Dios a veces que manda un mensaje a la persona por medio de su ángel custodio. De vez en cuando puede pedirle su auxilio.

Hermana
Kay

2020/2021 YEAR

The beginning of our Religious Education program will be delayed until late Fall or early Winter.

We will have our Sacramental Preparation Program for any child who is of age to make their First Communion.

RCIA 2020-2021

- Have you thought about joining the Catholic Church and didn't know what to do?
- Are you a Baptized Catholic wanting to return to the Faith?

If you answered yes to one of these questions please consider joining our RCIA program. Sessions will begin in late September and run through 3 weeks after Easter. There is no cost for the program and there is no obligation for inquiry. Call the Parish Center if interested.

Catholics Care. Catholics Vote.

Register to vote for Election Day (November 3, 2020)

In their statement on Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the U. S. Catholic bishops remind Catholics, "We are called to bring together our values and our political choices, our values and our votes, to help build a better world" (no. 14). In New York State, the voter registration deadline for the November 3 election is October 9. You can pick up a mail-in voter registration form at your county Board of Election or onlinevoterreg.dmv.nygov/motorvoter. New York State allows early voting October 24 through November 1. Contact your county Board of Election to apply for a mail-in-ballot allowed for anyone concerned about COVID-19. For reflection: What kinds of leaders does our society need? For what should they stand and how should they lead?

Family Promise Volunteers Needed

Family Promise of Wayne County is a non-profit organization that exists to help families with children experiencing temporary homelessness find permanent housing and achieve self-sustainability. FPWC has been in existence since October 2018. St. Michael's, along with other local churches, hopes to build a strong base of volunteers who are willing to help provide meals for these families in need. We are scheduled to host for the first time starting, Sunday, 9/13, for one week. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Michelle Malach at mrmalach68@gmail.com or call/text 585-507-0870, or Carol Archunde at NY742@yahoo.com or call 607-661-8783.

The Divine Mercy Chaplet will be prayed on the first Sunday of every month beginning October 4, 2020, at 3 pm in St. John the Evangelist Church, 114 Sodus St., Clyde, NY. Every other month Chaplet will be sung. Let us come together to pray to Our Lord that He would bless us with His gracious Mercy and help us to bring mercy and peace to the world.

Fr. Anthony Amato celebrates the Latin Mass Friday at 8:30 am at St. Patrick's church in Macedon, schedule permitting. If you might attend, please email Father at fr.anthony.amato@dor.org to be put on his email chain. Father Amato will send an email every Wednesday to inform you if he will be celebrating the Latin Mass that week. For any questions, please call our parish office at 315-902-4130.
