Dear Parishioners and Guests,

Happy Easter! Alleluia!

Today we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

This feast celebrates the victory of Jesus over sin and death. It is such an important feast that it is extended for a season of fifty days.

Easter is about the past, yes, but also about the present and the future. It is a feast that commemorates that first Easter morning centuries ago when Jesus rose from the darkness of the tomb, defying the power of death. He entered a new kind of life. By His resurrection, he promises everyone who follows him that the darkness of Good Friday, whatever form it might take, can be changed into Easter morning. The things that can hurt us, indeed, anything that is wrong with our lives or with our world, can be turned away, or turned around when we believe in the power of His resurrection.

For Christians, celebrating Easter means more than simply being a good person, believing in God's love. It means sharing that love with one's family, and beyond that, with one's community of faith. We come to church to renew Easter and to share our faith with our fellow parishioners. To all those who do this every Sunday, thank you for sharing your presence and your faith. To all who may be with us for the first time, or for the holiday, please feel welcome to be with us more often.

On this solemn day of the triumph of life over death, of light over darkness, and of hope over despair, I would like to wish you, our parishioners and guests, the awareness of being gifted by God and redeemed by the power of His resurrection. We are all called to do great things because we have been saved to do good things. Let this be our constant challenge.

To all of you, your families, relatives, and friends, I wish you a blessed Easter, full of peace and joy.

Praised be our Risen Lord!

La Gran Fiesta de los Creyentes

“El Misterio Pascual es el fundamento, soporte y fuerza de nuestra fe y esperanza, es lo que nos hace amar como Jesús nos ha amado.” (Pedro Llabrés) Cada domingo celebramos la resurrección del Señor, pero una vez al año la celebramos en grande a la conclusión del Triduo Pascual que nos ayuda recordar la última cena, la pasión y muerte de Jesús y la resurrección de Jesús de entre los muertos.

La resurrección de Jesús no fue resucitación, devolviendo su vida mortal a él. El volvió a una vida eterna. Fue transformado a tal grado que algunos discípulos dudaban que fue él. El aparecía a los discípulos; fueron ellos que habían escuchado su prédica, que habían caminado con él, que cenaban con él y que creían en él antes de su muerte. Ahora al ver y escuchar a este Jesús transformado cambió a los discípulos, ellos fueron transformados y creían en la resurrección. De a poco la revelación de quien era Jesús creció dentro de cada discípulo. Fueron convencidos de quien fue Jesús; hubo una transformación en sus vidas. No pudieron verificar las apariencias de Jesús; otra persona sin fe en Jesús no pudo ver la misma cosa que los discípulos creyentes veían y entendían. Fue una experiencia de fe. Jesús resucitado pidió a sus discípulos enseñar a otros para que la transformación de ellos pudo ser el impulso para compartir su fe con los demás.

Hoy necesitamos la fe para guiarnos a encontrar el significado de la Resurrección. Fue un solo evento que ocurrió después de la vida y muerte de Jesús, y este evento sigue viviendo; está ocurriendo a un nivel profundo hoy y hacia el futuro. Jesús aceptó la voluntad de su Padre para estar en servicio a los demás. Ahora Jesús puede estar íntimamente con nosotros; Jesús vive en nosotros. El resucitó por eso en vez de pensar que el ciclo humano es nacimiento, vida, muerte y corrupción, la Resurrección lo cambió al nacimiento, vida, muerte y vida eterna. ¡Que esperanza esto nos da!

También podemos hablar de las resurrecciones nuestras de cada día, porque realmente nuestra creencia en Jesús resucitado debe cambiar nuestra manera de hablar y de relacionarnos con los demás. Es un reto de cada día: orar con más fe y perseverancia, ayudar a alguien con amor, perdonar, hacer sonreír de felicidad a otra, ofrecer su servicio a otras sin que ellos lo piden, cumplir con sus responsabilidades responsablemente, hacer las cosas por amor a Dios y al prójimo. Resucitar cada día es dejarse ser transformado por Jesús resucitado. Que vivamos cada día con una vida nueva de amor y de servicio que Jesús resucitado nos da.

Hermana Kay

Gospel Reading: John 20:1-9

Mary of Magdala finds that the stone has been removed from Jesus' tomb.

In the Easter Gospel we hear about how the disciples found the tomb empty three days after Jesus' death. We are also told that they do not yet understand the Scriptures or that Jesus had been raised from the dead. That understanding gradually unfolded for the disciples as they began to experience the risen Lord. Similarly, our understanding of Jesus' Resurrection unfolds for us throughout our lives. In the weeks ahead, we will hear how the first disciples moved from confusion, doubt, and skepticism to faith. Their experience can teach us how we too might receive this gift of faith from God.

Gather your family members and ask them to share what they know about the events that happened in the days after Jesus' crucifixion. Invite your family to imagine that they are among Jesus' first disciples. Read together today's Gospel, John 20:1-9. Reflect together on the Gospel with questions such as these: If you had been among the first disciples who heard that the stone had been removed from Jesus' tomb and that Jesus' body was no longer there, what would you think? What did Mary of Magdala, Simon Peter, and the disciple whom Jesus loved think had happened? Recall that this experience is the first indication Jesus' disciples have that he is risen. Throughout the Easter season, we will learn more about how the disciples came to believe that Jesus had been raised from the dead. Pray together using today's psalm, Psalm 118: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad."
