JUNE

A life without sufficient food is not a life at all; it is certain death. A life with the wrong kinds of food can also lead to sickness and even death.

The Feast of Corpus Christi is the day for us to think about, and be grateful for, the Eucharist. It is the food of love, given to us by Jesus. At the Last Supper, He said, “Take and eat; take and drink. This food is a sign of my love for you.”

He reached out to his followers who had left their families, their places in society, maybe even their jobs, in order to follow Him. Now He was telling them He was going to die a violent death. And yet, all but one of them stayed, trusting that somehow love would win out, would be stronger than death.

In the first reading of this feast, the followers of Moses say, “We will do everything that the Lord has told us.” When we receive Holy Communion, we say “Amen.” Did you know that “Amen” means “yes/I agree”?

So in effect, we are saying exactly what the chosen people said. “I am committed to leading a good life, full of love for God and for those around me. Everything that God says, I will do.”
Fr. Felician

 SUMMER SCHEDULE ©LPI

There will be no 6 pm Mass until September. Holy Hour will continue once a month on the first Wednesday of each month, June–September. .

A FEW CHANGES...

Our parish will move forward with regards to the CDC, NYS and Diocesan requirements regarding COVID and mask wearing. A new seating arrangement has started which are marked by signs. The sections will be referred to as "SOCIAL DISTANCING" AND "NO SOCIAL DISTANCING" as stated in the memorandum from the Bishop that was inserted in the bulletin. We will rely on the goodness and honesty of our parishioners to follow the state guidelines and appropriately follow the seating as noted. We still ask that you continue to use the hand sanitizer when entering and exiting the church. We also ask that ALL parishioners wear their mask when coming forward to receive communion. You can also call the office with any questions or concerns. Thank you for your understanding and patience in this matter.

ALSO...

It is also time to return to Sunday Mass.

The obligation to attend Sunday Mass now resumes, effective this weekend, June 5/6, 2021, the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ in our dioceses.

Bazaar Meeting,
Tuesday, June 16

your great ideas.

Family Promise continues to host families at the apartments in Savannah. We are currently hosting 4 families, and there are several families on the waitlist. FP has revised the needs for these families. We are no longer asking for meals to be provided for the families. We are instead looking for financial donations to help purchase groceries. If you are willing to make a monetary donation or a gift card donation to a local store, please put in an envelope labeled "Family Promise" and either place it in the weekly collection basket or drop it off at the rectory. (Please use the Family Promise box at CCBT). No donation is too small. If you have any questions regarding Family Promise, please contact Michelle Malach at 585-507-0870, or Carol Archunde at 607-661-8783.

La Iglesia Doméstica: Tu Hogar con Tu Familia

Ustedes son la Iglesia en su propio hogar; es el Bautismo que une a Dios con los bautizados. Entre ustedes, los padres y los hijos, viviendo juntos que se forma una unión sagrada que permite a Dios obrar por medio de ustedes. Es por la familia que Dios actúa en el mundo; ustedes llevan a cabo la misión de la Iglesia sencillamente. Ustedes creen en Dios y que Dios se preocupa por ustedes y por eso van a El cuando haya un problema. Ustedes aman y creen en el valor de otras personas. Aun antes de escuchar la Palabra de Dios predicada, los hijos deben verla vivida en casa por los padres. Deben sentir el amor de sus padres, abuelos, y padrinos. Al desarrollar una relación con Dios, los hijos van a ver eso por la manera que actúan ustedes, los padres.

Son ustedes que comparten su fe por vivir según los valores del evangelio y por dar un ejemplo de cómo vivir el evangelio. Son ustedes en el bautismo de sus hijos que prometen educar y criar a sus hijos en la fe, y son ustedes que deben buscar la ayuda de Dios para realizar la tarea espiritual que Dios les da. Como familia deben orar juntos antes de comer, dando gracias a Dios por todas sus bendiciones, pidiendo su ayuda en tiempos difíciles y tiempos de duda, y fuerza para seguir adelante. Como miembros de una familia ustedes sirven uno al otro, aun a veces sacrificándose porque se aman uno al otro.

Espero que perdonen uno al otro e intenten reconciliarse. Tienen que dejar atrás las heridas del pasado y hacer paz; todos van a sentirse amados por Dios y por los otros miembros de la familia. En el medio de los acontecimientos cotidianos hay momentos de celebración de cumpleaños, muertes, amistades nuevas, trabajos nuevos, y ciertamente los sacramentos de Bautismo, Eucaristía, Confirmación, y Matrimonio. Juntos den gracias a Dios por lo que han recibido de Dios. Como familia van juntos a la iglesia los domingos para celebrar la Eucaristía y recibir de Dios la orientación y fuerza para la semana siguiente.

Ustedes actúan cristianamente en la comunidad cuando tratan a todos por justicia y respeto. Hacen ministerios en la comunidad eclesial como ministro de hospitalidad, servicio al altar, lector y visitante a los enfermos. Buscan hacer la paz y rechazan la guerra y la violencia. Hacen todo esto porque han aceptado Jesús como Dios y desean seguirlo y vivir fielmente su fe cristiana y a la vez criar a sus hijos en la fe de ustedes. Dios está ayudándolos cumplir con esta responsabilidad.

Gospel Reading: Mark 14:12-16,22-26

Jesus shares his Last Supper with his disciples in the beginning of today's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples to make preparations for the Passover meal. Like most meals, the Passover meal required planning and preparation. Our celebration of the Sunday Eucharist also requires planning and preparation. Certainly the ministers at the Eucharist prepare for their roles: the person presiding prays and prepares the homily; the prayers of petition are written; the music ministers prayerfully select music and practice it before Mass; Eucharistic ministers, lectors and altar servers prepare carefully for their roles. As the worshiping assembly, we can also prepare for the Mass through our prayer during the week, by reading the Scripture before Mass, and by making ourselves present to the Eucharistic celebration.

As you gather as a family, talk about some of the things that are required to prepare for your family meals. Plan together a special Sunday meal by choosing the menu, preparing the shopping list, and assigning duties for cooking, setting the table, preparing decorations, leading the prayers, and cleaning. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 14:12-16,22-26. Notice how Jesus instructed his disciples to prepare for their Passover meal. All meals require some kind of planning and preparation; so, too, our Sunday Eucharist requires planning. What might we do as a family to better prepare for our celebration of the Eucharist? Choose one or more ideas to begin to implement together as a family. Pray together that God will help your family make your celebration of the Eucharist the highlight of your week. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May god rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven

"... a time to be born..."

"...a time to love..."

"... a time to be healed..."

Please pray for the sick of our Parish.
