The cloud is lifting! How difficult these times of COVID have been but the cloud is lifting! Especially since Easter Sunday morning, I have been so moved to see so many of our people returning to Mass. I cannot think of anything sadder or more difficult during the lockdown than the empty pews of our churches. Anything. Now, though, we're coming back and we should come back with joy and with determination! While serving at Mass for Corpus Christi, I thought of how fitting it was that Bishop Matano and other bishops in New York State had chosen that day to reinstate the obligation of Sunday Mass attendance. If you have your Catholic Courier at home, I encourage you to read the Bishop's recent comments on this important matter. How strongly it brings to mind comments he made in his inaugural Mass when he was installed as the Bishop of Rochester. "If I can say no to the invitation of Jesus who himself declares IF YOU DO NOT EAT THE FLESH OF THE SON OF MAN AND DRINK HIS BLOOD YOU WILL NOT HAVE LIFE IN YOU. If we can dismiss this solemn declaration, of Jesus" Bishop Matano says, "then how easy it becomes to say no to any person or institution and to break or dishonor any commitment." And here is the most important question of all, on whose authority do we say these things? Not on mine, not on Father Felicjan's, not really even on the bishop's – or the Pope's! No, we speak only with the authority of Christ! It's not telling the whole story when we say, "As Catholics, we believe that the Eucharist is the Body and Blood of Christ." As though it is one option among many — a special "Catholic" teaching — that others are free to accept or reject. Jesus said these words when he had his largest following — five thousand people ready to accept his every word, ready to do whatever he asked but, when Jesus said it was his body and his blood and when the crowd complained, he only tightened his words, made them more specific, more literal, more, shocking, truly shocking. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. And everybody left except for the Twelve Apostles! Do not interpret Jesus' words! I say it again: Do not interpret Jesus' words! Accept them! Believe them! Accept that he who is God from God and Light from Light, he who defeated the power of death and hell and rose triumphantly from the grave, is truth himself and cannot lie or deceive. We have returned to Mass. Let us offer our sacrifice of praise! Let's us worship in spirit and in truth! Let's us believe and receive for the One who conquered sin and death beckons us: Come and eat! This IS my Body!

SUMMER SCHEDULE

There will be no 6 pm Mass until September. Holy Hour will continue once a month on the first Wednesday of each month, June-September.

A FEW CHANGES...

Our parish will move forward with regards to the CDC, NYS and Diocesan requirements regarding COVID and mask wearing. A new seating arrangement has started which are marked by signs. The sections will be referred to as "SOCIAL DISTANCING" AND "NO SOCIAL DISTANCING" as stated in the memorandum from the Bishop that was inserted in the bulletin a few weeks ago. We will rely on the goodness and honesty of our parishioners to follow the state guidelines and appropriately follow the seating as noted. We still ask that you continue to use the hand sanitizer when entering and exiting the church. We also ask that ALL parishioners wear their mask when coming forward to receive communion. You can also call the office with any questions or concerns. Thank you for your understanding and patience in this matter.

ALSO...

It is also time to return to Sunday Mass.

The obligation to attend Sunday Mass now resumes, effective the weekend of June 5/6, 2021.

Heavenly Father, you entrusted your Son Jesus, the child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, an earthly father. Bless all fathers as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience; support them in the work they have to do, protecting those who look to them, as we look to You for love and salvation, through Jesus Christ our rock and defender, in union with the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. St. Joseph, Pray for all our Fathers, Amen

¿Es un Buen Padre?

¿Como padre, cómo sabe si es un buen padre o no? La relación del amor entre un padre y su hijo(a) tiene que ir en ambas direcciones. Sí, trabaja para que ellos tengan ropa, techo y comida, pero ¿es solamente que salga en la mañana y regresa en la tarde con sus dólares ganados, y las cuentas pagadas junto con su esposa? ¿Cuánto tiempo dedica a los hijos? Si solamente paga algunas cuentas, no es bastante.

Un buen padre empieza a pasar tiempo con sus hijos cuando están en el vientre de su madre. El padre empieza por escuchar los latidos de su corazón, siente sus pataditas, y le habla y le canta. Al llegar a casa el padre debe conversar con sus hijos, hablándoles y escuchando a sus hijos hablar de las actividades de su día. Saber comunicarse con los hijos implica saber escucharlos y aprender no reaccionar de manera exagerada ante de lo que dicen. Si explota o grita o los critica con severidad, no van a decirle las cosas. Debe darles la libertad de expresar lo que piensan y lo que han hecho. Si les habla con calma y si los escucha desde el corazón, probablemente van a abrirse a usted. En la carta de Santiago, él escribe: "Toda persona tiene que ser presto en cuanto a oír, lento en cuanto a hablar y lenta a la ira." Escuche con amor.

Discipline a sus hijos con amor y elógielos. Cuando discipline a sus hijos, hágalo porque los ama y quiere que les vaya bien en la vida, no porque su autoridad ha sido cuestionada o porque usted se siente decepcionado. Combine la disciplina con consejos. Junto con la disciplina va la educación y corrección. Si solamente está corrigiendo y castigando, y nunca elogia a sus hijos, está perdiendo algo importante. Debe mostrar su amor por reconocer no solamente lo malo, sino también lo bueno. Los hijos no deben recibir solo manzanas podridas de usted sino "manzanas de oro con adornos de plata" (Prov. 25:11).

Hay que dar un buen ejemplo de cómo vivir y actuar. Ellos aprenden de sus padres y madres. La forma de tratar un hombre a su esposa se ve en la casa. Los hijos pueden ver. Hay que tratar a su esposa con respeto y amor. Que haya amor y unión entre esposos y entre los padres y sus hijos. La casa es una iglesia doméstica donde todos deben ver vivido el amor de Dios para con todos y el amor entre los miembros de la familia. Esto empieza con el amor entre los esposos.

Enséñeles amar a Dios y de a poco los ayuda, junto con su esposa, a formar una relación con su Padre en el cielo (su papito). Ayude a ellos hablar a Dios usando sus propias palabras y escuchando a Dios. Lleve a sus hijos a la iglesia los domingos y los explique a una edad apropiada lo del edificio y los muebles de la iglesia. Ayúdelos persignarse, usar el agua bendita y aprender las oraciones usadas en la Misa.

El título "padre" y esposo son los títulos más importantes que va a tener en su vida.

Realice su papel bien. ¡Feliz día de los padres!

Hermana Kay

Obligación de Asistir a Misa Dominical

Desde el 6 de junio tenemos la obligación de asistir a Misa en la iglesia todos los domingos.

Oración a San José para pedir la protección de tu familia

Glorioso San José, protector, modelo y guía de las familias cristianas: Te ruego protejas a la mía. Haz reinar en ella el espíritu de fe y de religión, la fidelidad a los mandamientos de Dios y de la Iglesia, la paz y la unión de los hijos, el desprendimiento de los bienes temporales y el amor a los asuntos del cielo.

Dígnate velar sobre todos nuestros intereses. Ruega al Señor que bendiga nuestra casa. Otorga la paz a la familia; acierto a los hijos en la elección de estado. Concede a todos los miembros de nuestra familia y de todas las familias de la tierra, la gracia de vivir y morir en el amor de Jesús y de María. Amén

Gospel Reading: Mark 4:35-41
Jesus calms the storm.

Worries and concerns are part of human life. Jesus teaches us, however, that we ought not to let worries and concerns consume us. Jesus teaches us that our faith ought to lead us to trust in God's protection and love, no matter how strong the whirlwind going on around us. Like the disciples, we can bring our worries and concerns to Jesus in prayer. Jesus will hear our cries for help. He knows that our faith can be fragile and he will act so that our trust in God will be strengthened.

As you gather as a family, invite each family member to talk about something that might be worrying them. Talk about how important it is to share worries and concerns with other people. When we do this, we learn to see our worries from a different perspective. Read today's Gospel, Mark 4:35-41. Ask your family questions such as these: Why were the disciples worried about the storm? Why wasn't Jesus worried about the storm? When we bring our worries to Jesus in prayer, Jesus can help us see things from God's perspective. Invite family members to name again a worry or concern and pray together that Jesus will help us have faith in God's love and protection. Conclude in prayer together by praying the Lord's Prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

End of School Prayer

God of wisdom, we thank you for all the gifts you have given us throughout this school year.

We praise you for giving us life,
for saving us in Christ,

and for choosing us to be your people.
As we come to the end of this school year, we voice our gratitude for the good things you have done in us, and we praise you for all who have shared in the work of this school.

We ask you to bless them in your love and give them refreshment and peace.

We praise you, God,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord,
who lives and reigns forever and ever.
Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
