15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. - Mk 6:7, 13

Fr. Mike's Message:

Summer

It is quite hard to believe that the 4th of July holiday is already in the rearview mirror. It means that summer is already well under way. I have often found that parish life, as well as regular life, slows down some during the summer months. Maybe its because its often too hot to do too much, or just because we need some time to slow down, but summer often becomes the time of year where we take time off and get away.

My guess is that many of you will try to take a vacation during these months. Vacations are very nice and are very beneficial for us, whether we go to some far-off country or stay right in our own backyard. But might I suggest, if you can this year, to consider taking some time off, not simply for leisure, but to spend with the Lord.

Every summer, as parish life slows down, I plan a week-long retreat. Now, priests are required to make a yearly retreat, but I would make it even if it wasn't required. I have always gone to the Abbey of the Genesee monastery located in Piffard, out in Livingston County. That week spent with the Trappist Monks has always been a powerful one for me. Year after year I have received so many benefits from spending just a few days there in prayer and solitude. Just being able to step away from the rigors of life for a few days and spend some much-needed quiet time with our Lord, away from technology and deadlines and schedules, has always helped to recharge my batteries. I always come back feeling refreshed and ready to take on the challenges of parish life that await when I return.

Now, I know, of course, that not everyone is able to take a week off to spend at a secluded monastery. But if you get a chance, I would encourage you to spend some time this summer in quiet with the Lord. Spend some time away from the noise of daily life and put yourself in God's presence. Maybe make a daytrip to the Abbey, or to Mount Savior, another Monastery down in Elmira, in the Southern Tier. Or make a trip to one of the many shrines throughout our state. You can even set up a prayer room in your house, in a quiet area, to be with the Lord. And of course, don't forget to spend some time in the Church before the Blessed Sacrament. I can promise you if you take that time this summer, your lives will continue to be enriched, refreshed, and renewed

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." — Mk 6:7, 10-11

Summer blessings for families:

*May we make our home places of relaxation,
joy, love, peace and safety.*

*May we be generous and considerate,
Not thinking only about ourselves, but helping others
enjoy the blessings of the summertime.*

Lord God, Creator of all things, guide our steps and strengthen our hearts during these months of summer and vacation days.

Grant us refreshment of mind and body.

May we constantly strive to make a meaningful difference in the lives of our loved ones

and in the world around us as we enjoy the warm days of summertime.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

¡Ven, Espíritu Santo! ¡Entra en Nuestras Vidas!

Hace dos semanas antes de comenzar el bautismo de Estefan pregunté a todos en la asamblea si iban a aceptar la responsabilidad de ayudar al niño crecer en la fe, de ayudar a los padres criar al niño en la fe. Dijeron que sí. No son solamente los padres y padrinos que tienen la responsabilidad. ¿Se acuerdan que nuestros sacramentos son celebraciones comunitarias y por el Bautismo los niños son reconocidos como miembros de la familia de Dios y miembros de la Iglesia, del pueblo de Dios, de nuestra comunidad? Si no han visto un niño o un joven en la celebración Eucarística, eso debe preocuparse. Ayuden a los padres aumentar su fe y vivir su fe. Si son vecinos o conocidos, hablen con ellos diciendo que ustedes los echan de menos en la iglesia y pueden mencionar el programa de formación en la fe para los niños y jóvenes y el grupo juvenil.

Por el Bautismo el Espíritu Santo entró en la vida del bautizado, pero desafortunadamente muchas personas no se comunican con el Espíritu Santo quien vive en ellos. Intentamos caminar por la vida por medio de nuestra propia fuerza sin la ayuda de Dios. Nos olvidamos de la ayuda que el Espíritu Santo nos ofrece gratuitamente. Está con nosotros y nos espera despertarnos a la acción a la cual nos invita. ¿Tenemos el deseo de ser un verdadero discípulo de Cristo? Es el Espíritu Santo que va a ayudarnos; tenemos que dejar que el Espíritu Santo actúe dentro de nosotros y nos mueva a la acción. Les ruego que piensen en el bien completo suyo y de sus hijos. Nosotros somos más que cuerpos; tenemos que desarrollar nuestras mentes, nuestra capacidad de socializarnos y muy importante es nuestro espíritu interior. Sin el Espíritu Santo la vida de fe, la esperanza y la caridad son imposible. Es el Espíritu que actúa en nuestros corazones y es el Espíritu que nos transforma si estamos abiertos a su acción. El Espíritu sostiene la Iglesia; nos mueve a amar y nos ayuda a compartir la fe con otros.

El Espíritu Santo nos regala dones y cada uno es una ayuda en distintas situaciones. Al pasar los años algunos dones toman mas importancia en la vida nuestra. La sabiduría trae el gusto de Dios y su vida. Uno distingue entre lo esencial y lo no tan importante. El entendimiento nos ayuda a reconocer mejor las profundidades de Dios, y el don de consejo nos ayuda a discernir caminos y opciones distintos, de cómo orientar nuestras vidas, ayudándonos a escuchar profundamente. El don de la ciencia no es la ciencia del mundo sino nos abre interiormente al pensamiento de Dios. El don de la piEDAD nos ayuda a estar en la búsqueda de Dios, abiertos a su voluntad, y aprender cómo actuar con Jesús. Ah, y ¿cómo hacer eso? A veces necesitamos el don de fortaleza que nos ayuda, al sentirnos débiles, a ser valientes para enfrentar las dificultades. El séptimo don es el temor de Dios para mantenernos con respeto frente a Dios, respetando lo que sabemos que Dios quiere de nosotros, y separándonos de lo que pueda desagradar a Dios. Ven, Espíritu Santo, despiértanos a tu presencia activa en nuestras vidas. Hermana Kay

Family Connection

Gospel Reading: Mark 6:7-13

Jesus instructs his disciples and sends them to preach repentance.

Families who work together to accomplish routine household tasks know that the benefits are more than efficiency. In sharing daily tasks, we accomplish more, but we also build relationships that last—and it's a lot more fun! Jesus sent his disciples in pairs to minister in his name. Perhaps the job was accomplished more effectively this way, but more importantly, Jesus' mission was accomplished more authentically. The Christian message can only authentically be proclaimed in and through the community of faith. In our work with others, we build this community of faith and can invite others to share in it.

As you gather as a family, talk about some household tasks that are more easily accomplished when two or more people work together. Talk about how working together not only makes the job easier, but also makes the task more fun because we are able to spend time together. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 6:7-13. Ask: Why do you think Jesus sent out his disciples in pairs? Observe that Jesus continues to give us a community with which we share our life of discipleship—our family and the community of the Church. Conclude in prayer together that we will continue to rely on the support of the community of the Church in our life of discipleship. Pray together the Prayer to the Holy Spirit.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
And kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And you will renew the face of the earth.
Lord,
by the light of the Holy Spirit
you have taught the hearts of your faithful.
In the same Spirit
help us to relish what is right
and always rejoice in your consolation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
