MASSES ARE STILL AT

Dear Parishioners,

It is hard to believe, but the summer is over, and the “kids” are going back to school. With the academic year starting again, so also begins the parish’s year of activities. As we approach September 11th, this year is the twentieth anniversary of that horrific act of terrorism. We need to pray and beseech Almighty God to turn hearts of hatred to love, and that all forms of terror end. We need to pray for the victims of 9/11 and the brave firefighters, police and rescue people who died saving others. We need to pray for the families and friends of all those affected.

You should receive in September your letter about CMA.

I ask you to consider making an annual gift which allows us to continue to proclaim God’s love through the many ministries in the diocese - our catechetical, liturgical, educational, and social justice ministries. You make all of these good works possible and we will continue to do this because of your support of this year’s CMA. I hope that we can count on your support once again.

I want to thank everyone for your continued support of our parish—Time, Talent & Treasure. Your support has truly helped us all realize that our “firsts” go to God, the Giver of all Good Gifts. This has enabled us over this last year to move forward with what needed to be done. Without your past sacrificial giving and your future selfless giving, our parish wouldn’t be what you, through God’s grace, have made it. For this I sincerely thank you.

Once again I thank you, the parishioners, for making Saint Michael Church a warm and welcoming place. Many people tell me how comfortable they feel at our Parish and how nice the people are. May we continue to be a welcoming parish. There is truly a place at the “Table” for everyone here at Saint Michael Church.

Let us pray for each other that God will continue to bless us; that we may be a parish overflowing with hospitality and welcome for everyone – that everyone knows that they have a place at God’s Table.

Fr. Felicjan

Laudetur Jesus Christus !

Valor y Dignidad del Trabajo

Desde el año pasado hemos escuchado mucho del trabajo y de lo que el gobierno piensa que son los trabajos esenciales. Entre ellos son trabajadores agrícolas, trabajadores de la salud, primeros respondedores, los trabajadores en los supermercados, etc. El trabajo tiene valor para la persona que lo hace y para los que reciben los beneficios del trabajo. Puede ser que de vez en cuando usted piense “¿por qué estoy gastando tanto tiempo y esfuerzo haciendo un trabajo cuando poca gente lo aprecia mis esfuerzos?” No subestime el valor de su trabajo--todo tipo de trabajo tiene valor y dignidad; hay trabajo con y sin remuneración.

Mucha gente perdió su trabajo el año pasado y al perder su trabajo, algunas estaban pensando que perdieron su valor personal. Habían adjuntado la idea de su valor personal al trabajo por el que se les pagaba. El valor personal y el valor del trabajo son dos cosas distintas. Pero es importante trabajar; cada trabajo hace una diferencia en la persona realizándolo y en la persona que recibe los resultados del trabajo. Cuando está sirviendo alguien y haciendo un servicio de algún tipo, está mostrando el amor hacia esa persona. Los trabajos tienen valor y usted necesita tomar orgullo en su trabajo, haciéndolo lo mejor que posible y responsablemente.

El trabajo debe fortalecer nuestra vida familiar, brindando recursos y respeto, beneficios y atención médica para las familias. El trabajo debe permitir que la familia viva con dignidad. Realmente por medio de nuestro trabajo vamos continuando la creación de Dios. Las cosas que hacemos son contribuciones al bien común de nuestra sociedad.

¿Ha pensado en la posibilidad de desarrollar una espiritualidad de trabajo? Hay que empezar por pedir la presencia y ayuda de Dios en su día del trabajo. Tiene que empezar a hacer algo espiritual consciente y fielmente para poder cambiar su consciencia de lo que está haciendo.

Algunas sugerencias pueden ser: (1) Poner algunos objetos religiosos o fotos de la familia y amigos que tienen un significado profundo de espiritualidad. (2) Reconocer regularmente que usted es humano y va a hacer errores. Hay que vivir con imperfecciones para poder reconocer el santo y divino en la vida. Somos débiles y necesita la ayuda de Dios para poder hacer el reino de Dios en la tierra. El trabajo no es la única cosa importante en la vida. Tenemos que equilibrar el trabajo con otras responsabilidades. (3) Debemos hacer el trabajo lo mejor que posible para que el trabajo puede alimentar nuestras vidas espirituales. (4) Hay que dar gracias y felicidades a otros trabajadores y a sí mismo por un trabajo bien hecho. Hay que tratar a otras personas con quienes trabaja como desearía ser tratado. (5) No es posible siempre mejorar y hacer más de lo que ya está haciendo. Hay que decidir cuándo usted ha hecho bastante y seguir haciendo esa buena cualidad de trabajo sin intentar hacer más, metiéndose en una vida llena de estrés.

Espero que pueda sentir la presencia de Dios en su lugar del trabajo y en el trabajo mismo. Haga con Orgullo su trabajo y ofrezca ese trabajo por la gloria de Dios. Hermana Kay

Family Connection

Gospel Reading: Mark 7: 31-37

Jesus restores a man's hearing and speech.

Today's Gospel invites us to consider how we witness the healing presence of Christ in our care for and ministry to those who are sick. We notice that the deaf man is brought to Jesus for healing by his friends. These people beg Jesus to lay his hands on this deaf man so that he might be healed. Jesus' healing power is shown in his opening of the man's ears and the restoring of his speech. When family members care for one another when they are sick, they bring Christ's healing presence. When we pray for those who are ill, we ask God to show his healing power. When health is restored, we share that good news with others. As you gather as a family, recall a time when a family member was ill. What steps were taken to help restore this family member to health? Talk about what it feels like to care for a person who is ill, and about how it feels to be the sick person being cared for. In today's Gospel, we hear about a time when Jesus healed a man who was deaf. Read today's Gospel, Mark 7:31-37. Notice how the man who was cured and his friends could not honor Jesus' request to keep quiet about Jesus' power to heal. We continue to celebrate Jesus' healing presence in our lives by giving thanks to God for the gift of healing and health. Conclude in prayer, thanking Jesus for the gifts of health and healing. Pray together for those who are sick. After each person is named, pray, "Jesus, heal us."

A Back To School Prayer

*Blessed are you, Lord God, Creator of body and mind and heart;
you have sent the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge to guide your people in all their ways.*

*At the beginning of this new school year,
in this time of uncertainty and anxiety,
we implore your mercy.*

Bless and protect our students, teachers, staffs and their families.

*Give wisdom to the decision makers,
be they in our schools or in our homes.*

Expand the horizons of our minds, and deepen our commitment to seek the truth of your ways.

*Enliven our faith to reach out to those in need,
particularly those isolated and lonely.*

In these days when so much has changed,

help us to trust in the love of your Son Jesus,

our Divine Teacher, who is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Amen.
