SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." — Jn 2:1-3

Los que Siguieron la Estrella de Jesús

Los magos/sabios, llegando del Oriente, fueron primero a Herodes, pensando que alguien que tenía autoridad y poder sabría donde estaba el gran rey prometido. Pero Herodes estaba en oscuridad mientras que la estrella brillaba fuertemente. Tenían que seguir la luz de la estrella y en un escenario de pobreza se encontró el rey, un niño recostado en un pesebre. Los magos lo adoraron. En este lugar encontraron la Luz grande del mundo y lo presentaron regalos; este niño seguramente tenía un efecto importante durante toda su vida.

Ya ha terminado el tiempo de Navidad y entramos al tiempo ordinario. Pero no debemos olvidar lo que pasó en el tiempo de navidad. ¿Realmente descubrimos la Luz en nuestras vidas? Nosotros somos entre los de otras naciones a los que fue manifestado Jesús de Belén. No somos sabios, pero hemos llegado a encontrar a Jesucristo, y debemos recordar que es El que da luz a nuestras vidas y nos mantiene con vida, vida física y vida espiritual. Somos entre los bautizados que creemos en este Dios fantástico, creador del cielo y de la tierra.

Es importante que no solamente creemos en Dios Jesucristo, sino que vivimos como profesamos nuestra creencia. Es un reto grande, pero eso es la vida cristiana de un bautizado. Oremos uno por el otro en este año nuevo de 2022. Que Dios nos guie en este año y que nos de la fuerza para seguir adelante en su nombre.

Hermana Kay

No importa cuán vastas sean las tinieblas, debemos dar nuestra propia luz que proviene de Dios.

Family Connection

Gospel Reading: John 2:1-11
Jesus performs his first sign at a wedding feast in Cana. Weddings are wonderful family celebrations. We go out of our way to make the occasion festive and extraordinary. People work hard to please one another. What better image of the Kingdom of God! Not every day is a wedding celebration, but we can anticipate the Kingdom of God each day in our attentiveness to one another's needs. If your family has attended a wedding celebration together, talk about the experience and the planning and cooperation that made the celebration memorable. Talk about how weddings and feasts are images in Scripture for the Kingdom of God. Consider how these festive occasions are images of God's tremendous love for us and examples of how we can show our love for one another. Then read together today's Gospel, John 2:1-11. Talk about Mary's attentiveness to the needs of the hosts and about Jesus' response. What could your family learn from this story? Consider ways that you might show these values in your family's daily life. Pray together Saint Ignatius' Prayer for Generosity.

*Eternal Word, only begotten Son of God,
Teach me true generosity.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve.
To give without counting the cost,
To fight heedless of wounds,
To labor without seeking rest,
To sacrifice myself without thought of any reward
Save the knowledge that I have done your will. Amen.*

It Takes All Kinds

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."
Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.
But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom. Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all. Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?
Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
