Participating in the Synod in the Dioceses of Rochester Synod 2021-23

Sunday Gospel Synodal Connections
8th Sunday in Ordinary Time
(Lk 6: 39-45)

Jesus told His disciples, "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit? No disciple is superior to the teacher, but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher." Synod theme #4 Forming ourselves in Synodality says, "The Spirituality of journeying together is called to become an education principle for the formation of the human person and of the Christian, of the families and of the communities. How do we form people, especially those who hold roles of responsibility within the Christian community, to make them more capable of "journeying together", listening to one another and engaging in dialogue?" We as Christians are called to help guide others to Christ. Let us learn to journey together. To learn more and/or participate by visiting the webpage www.dor.org/synod.

Palabras Sabias

Algunas personas parecen tener más sabiduría que otras. Uno escucha tales personas hablando y lo que dicen tiene sentido. Hoy en el libro de Eclesiástico leemos varias palabras de sabiduría. "Al agitar el cernidor, aparecen las basuras". ¿No es cierto que cernimos para eliminar lo que no es bueno y botarlo? En la vida con todo lo que la persona dice y hace es posible ver el verdadero carácter de la persona. Hay que juzgarlo por eso no por sus apariencias externas.

Son las obras de la persona que muestra su bondad, su relación con Dios, y cómo valora su fe en Dios.

"Nunca alabes a nadie antes de que hable, porque esa es prueba del hombre." Jesús en el evangelio dice: "el hombre bueno dice cosas buenas, porque el bien está en su corazón, y el hombre malo dice cosas malas porque el mal está en su corazón, pues la boca habla de lo que está lleno el corazón." Cada uno de nosotros tiene que pensar lo que está en nuestro corazón. En el corazón habita nuestra autenticidad. Hay que reflexionar bien sobre lo que llevamos en el corazón; nuestra vida entera va a indicarlo.

¿Qué o quién llevamos en el corazón? Espero que llevemos a Jesucristo en el corazón, y es El de quien hablamos y de alguna manera reflejamos en nuestras acciones. Ojalá que Jesucristo sea nuestro modelo de vida. Hay que estar convencidos de que desean seguir a Jesucristo y si es así, hay que leer y orar más frecuentemente las Escrituras para conocerlo y poder saber cómo seguir su ejemplo. No es fácil, pero es posible y les puede dar mucha alegría a sus vidas porque es en amar y hacer el bien cuando nos sentimos muy bien.

Todos ustedes árboles, muestren sus frutos y cualidades buenas y ayuden a otros saber cómo conseguir la felicidad de tener una relación íntima con Dios. La felicidad más grande no es en tener un montón de cosas sino en tener una relación grande e íntima con Dios.

Esta semana empezamos la Cuaresma, y van a tener el lujo de pensar en su relación con Dios, y cómo está viviéndola. Que cada uno de nosotros use bien este tiempo para mirar lo positivo y lo negativo de nuestras palabras y acciones e intentar cambiarlas hacia el bien. Hay que mirarse para adentro para descubrir el usted auténtico. Fije una meta de un cambio pequeño en su vida y trabaje para lograrla y después seleccione otro cambio posible y trabaje para lograr ese cambio.

Que Jesucristo sea su guía. Hermana Kay

Family Connection

Jesus' parables in this week's Gospel are a reminder of the importance of continued learning, prayer and reflection, and humility in our discipleship. We shine God's light in the world when we are "lit from within" with God's grace, willing to examine our own conscience and recognize our own need for transformation through Jesus. As busy parents responsible for our children's physical, emotional, and spiritual growth, we may sometimes be challenged to find time and energy to care for ourselves and attend to our own spiritual growth. Yet doing so can improve our family relationships and help us guide our children in their faith. We can be reminded of the simple safety instruction we hear when flying: to put on our own "spiritual" oxygen mask before helping others.

Gather as a family and spend some time discussing ideas about what it means to be a good disciple. What do we need to learn? How are we to act? How do we treat others? Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 6:39-45. Discuss what Jesus means when he asks, "Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?" Talk about how we might be tempted to focus on one another's shortcomings without noticing our own and how this might lead to conflict. Point out that part of being a good disciple is focusing on our own behavior. As a family, share ideas for responding as a disciple when you are upset with another family member's words or actions. (For example, taking a cooling off break before talking to the person or praying for help to see if our actions contributed to the conflict and we need to apologize.) Pray that you will grow together in your discipleship and then pray the Lord's Prayer.

Lenten Disciplines of Fasting & Abstinence

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

THANK YOU!

St Michaels Catholic Church

raised:

$192 and 101 food items

Thanks to your efforts this year, more dollars have been raised, more lives have been changed and the nation has seen the impact of people working together to help those in need. Thank you for working to transform the time around the Super Bowl into the nation's largest celebration of giving and serving.
