Fr. Mike's Message...

Today is Palm Sunday, which means we have now officially entered into Holy Week. Holy Week marks the final week of Jesus' earthly life. From his triumphal entry into Jerusalem, through his Passion, Death, and Resurrection on Easter Sunday. Holy Week, and in particular, the Triduum (Holy Thursday through Easter Sunday), are considered the holiest days of the Liturgical Year, and the liturgies on those days are different from all others.

The first few days of Holy Week are similar to the rest of Lent, although on Tuesday of Holy Week every year the Bishop celebrates the Chrism Mass at the Cathedral. Here, he blesses and consecrates the Holy Oils that we use for the various Sacraments throughout the year. If you've never been, it is worth experiencing at least once, as it truly is a wonderful celebration.

The Triduum (Latin for "three days") begins on Holy Thursday, and it is these three days that stand alone as the greatest of liturgies. In fact, the liturgies on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday really form one continuous liturgy that goes from Holy Thursday through the Easter Vigil on Saturday. Holy Thursday Mass is the commemoration of the Last Supper and the Institution of the Eucharist. We hear the story of the washing of the disciple's feet in the Gospel, and we remember that call to service (the "Mandatum") by having the priest wash the feet of parishioners. At the end of Mass on Holy Thursday, there is no dismissal, as the liturgy does not end. After the Eucharistic Procession, the tabernacle sits empty and remains empty until the Easter Vigil, a symbol of the Lord's Passion and Death.

The service on Good Friday begins and ends in silence, as it is a continuation of the liturgy that began the night before and ends the following evening. On Good Friday, we commemorate the day that Jesus made the ultimate sacrifice for us, dying on the Cross. The Good Friday service is not a Mass, as we don't consecrate the Eucharist on that day. It is the only day of the year that there is no Mass celebrated. We read the full Passion Narrative in John's Gospel, and we also have a special veneration of the Cross, a reminder that what was meant to be a device of torture and death ended up being the instrument of our salvation.

The Triduum reaches its high point on Holy Saturday night with the Easter Vigil. This is the night that we begin the celebration of Easter, the Resurrection. The Easter Vigil is the night that we formally welcome Catechumens and Candidates into the Church through the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. It is truly a night of celebration, as the sorrow of the previous days lead to the joy of Easter. The celebration of the Easter Vigil liturgy leads directly into Easter Sunday, where we continue the celebration of the Resurrection.

This whole season of Lent has ultimately been preparing us for what is to come this week. I would encourage everyone, as best you can, to immerse yourself in the upcoming liturgies. If you have never been to any or all of the Triduum liturgies, I can promise you that there is no better way to finish our Lenten journey and begin the Easter celebration than to participate in these three most mysterious but powerful days.

Sharing God's Love
 As we walk with Jesus through Holy Week, we call to mind the countless children, women and men who even today carry heavy crosses: crosses of hunger, homelessness, poverty, lack of security. In these brothers and sisters we encounter Jesus as he walks that long road to Calvary. This week is also a time to reflect on St. Paul's words to the Philippians: Jesus emptied himself for us. How might we empty ourselves for others? Our Lenten prayer, fasting, almsgiving have prepared us to continue to wrestle with this question.

Cargar Su Cruz
 Jesús había dicho a sus discípulos que él tendría que sufrir y ser rechazado por las autoridades judías y los sacerdotes y maestros de la Ley. Él dijo que iba a estar condenado a muerte. Después él decía a toda la gente, "Si alguno quiere seguirme, que se niegue a sí mismo, que cargue con su cruz de cada día y que me siga" (Lc. 9:23). Jesús tenía el poder de evitar esa muerte en la cruz, pero él la aceptó. Antes él había escapado de personas que querían matarlo. Pero esta vez es diferente. Al ir con los soldados que fueron al huerto para arrestarlo, Jesús estaba aceptando libremente la cruz y la tormenta y dolor causado por ella.

Es lo que Jesús nos dice a nosotros. No debemos aceptar el sufrimiento y las dificultades en la vida porque nos vienen y no podemos evitarlos, sino tenemos que vivir las dificultades libremente. Aun a veces tenemos que buscar y hacer cosas difíciles, aunque nos llegará heridas u oposición porque sabemos es lo que Dios quiere de nosotros. Lo hacemos por un bien y por seguir el camino de Jesucristo. Por esa opción estamos haciendo el bien y estamos en el servicio de Dios. Nosotros aceptamos las dificultades del otro ayudándolo en el momento o luchamos por la justicia necesaria para otro que puede demorar años antes de ser lograda. Optamos por compartir el sufrimiento, la dificultad o la injusticia del otro. Nos ponemos en la posición de negar a nosotros mismos y ayudar al otro; somos instrumentos de Dios. Otras veces si haya un sufrimiento en nuestras propias vidas, tenemos que ver cómo vivirlo por un bien. Dios va a darnos la fuerza para llevarla. Podemos crecer mas y mas por buscar la cruz y llevarla bien. Sabemos que tenemos la ayuda de Jesucristo para llevarla.

Tengo una amiga que ha comprado en sus viajes muchísimas cruces—cada una diferente. Tres paredes de su sala de estar están tapadas del cielo al piso con cruces de distintos tipos y tamaños. La cruz no tiene corpus y es un buen símbolo por lo que estoy describiendo. Cada persona tiene que cargar su cruz y seguir a Jesucristo. Es nuestro cuerpo que ponemos en cada cruz en tantas diferentes situaciones. Algunas situaciones no van a causarnos tanta dificultad para responder—la cruz será pequeña, pero otras situaciones van a ser más grandes—una cruz más grande, y van a costarnos más trabajo, más autonegación y más tiempo. Cristo nos ofrece una cruz casi cada día. ¿Cómo vamos a responder? ¿Aceptamos las cruces de cada día al seguir a Jesús? En la Misa el monaguillo lleva el crucifijo en la procesión para empezar nuestra celebración. Sí, es Cristo quien nos reúne en una acción de gracias en la Eucaristía. Es Cristo quien libremente aceptó la muerte en una cruz quien es el centro de nuestra celebración. Es Él a quien seguimos y de Él aprendemos cómo vivir como cristianos. San Pablo escribió, "He sido crucificado con Cristo y ahora no vivo yo, es Cristo quien vive en mí. Lo que vivo en mi carne, lo vivo con la fe."

Recuerden que Cristo vive en ustedes y actúa por medio de ustedes. Piensen en cómo ustedes viven libremente las cruces de su vida. Que esta semana santa los lleve más cerca a Jesucristo y a su prójimo.

A Prayer for the Ukraine

God of Peace and Justice, we pray for those caught up in the current violence in Ukraine. We implore you for peace.

Holy Spirit, our Consolation comfort all those who fear. Grant wisdom and discernment to those in power.

Holy Family, who fled to Egypt, Guard all those who have sought refuge Away from the land they love, And bring them safely home again.

Mary, Mother of us all, cast your protecting veil around all suffering lands and peoples. Turn all hearts back to your Son, Our only Savior and the Prince of Peace. Amen.
