EXCERPTS FROM THE LECTONARY FOR MASS (2001, 1996, 1970 CCD). CLR

Creemos en la Resurrección

¿Realmente crees en la Resurrección de Cristo? Leemos en los evangelios que Jesús vivió, murió y resucitó por causa nuestra. ¿Creemos lo que repetimos cada domingo en el credo, “resucitó al tercer día”? También profesamos que esperamos “la resurrección de los muertos.” Ah, hubo muchos testigos de la vida transformada de Jesús—los discípulos a quienes él apareció en el camino de Emaús quienes no lo reconocían hasta su acción eucarística con el pan en la mesa. Magdalena estaba llorando cerca de la tumba cuando Jesús le habló. Los apóstoles estaban reunidos en el cuarto superior cuando escuchaban su voz saludándoles con la paz después que el pasó por una puerta cerrada sin abrirla.

Esta apariencia de Jesús a ellos no fue un milagro. Esta fue Jesucristo transformado, no fue una resucitación como lo de Lázaro. Este Cristo verdaderamente había muerto, pero tres días después resucitó. La parte humana y la parte divina de Jesús estuvieron completamente unidos; fueron uno en Jesucristo. Ese día de Pascua todo cambió y el cuerpo espiritual o transformado de Cristo fue reconocido por los discípulos. No pasó porque los discípulos lo querían sino porque la resurrección de Cristo realmente ocurrió.

Este evento transformó a los discípulos porque estaban verdaderamente convencidos de la realidad del evento y después comprometidos a dar sus propias vidas como testigos de esta verdad. Dieron testimonio que Cristo murió, que fue sepultado y que resucitó al tercer día (1Cor 15: 4). Con la ayuda del Espíritu Santo los apóstoles pudieron dar testimonio de su fe en Jesucristo públicamente. Hubo un cambio tremendo en sus vidas.

¿Qué tiene que ver todo esto para nosotros 2,000 años después de estos acontecimientos? Si no hubo una resurrección de Cristo, yo creo que cuatro personas no habrían escrito evangelios y no tendríamos la fe cristiana hoy. Cristo nos da la fuerza y convicción de creer en todo lo que él enseñó y nos ayuda a seguir su camino—muchas veces un camino difícil de seguir. Así vamos recuperando nuestras convicciones, para vivir más nuestra potencial divina. Fuimos hechos a la imagen de Dios, pero los seres humanos perdimos algún brillo de ser hijos de Dios. Jesús nos mostró cómo fue posible ser más como Dios. Ojalá que nosotros aquí en la comunidad de Newark podamos aceptar la libertad dada a nosotros por la resurrección para rechazar todo lo que nos quita la libertad de rechazar lo que son obstáculos de vivir el camino de Jesucristo. Conocemos el camino de Jesús y ahora tenemos que aceptar los medios de seguir ese camino. Hermanos y hermanas, ¿están conmigo en intentar vivir el camino de

Cristo resucitado como él nos mostró en los evangelios? Así, al final de nuestras vidas

Family Connection

In the Easter Gospel we hear about how the disciples found the tomb empty three days after Jesus' death. We are also told that they do not yet understand the Scriptures or that Jesus had been raised from the dead. That understanding gradually unfolded for the disciples as they began to experience the risen Lord. Similarly, our understanding of Jesus' Resurrection unfolds for us throughout our lives. In the weeks ahead, we will hear how the first disciples moved from confusion, doubt, and skepticism to faith. Their experience can teach us how we too might receive this gift of faith from God. Gather your family members and ask them to share what they know about the events that happened in the days after Jesus' crucifixion. Invite your family to imagine that they are among Jesus' first disciples. Read together today's Gospel, John 20:1-9. Reflect together on the Gospel with questions such as these: If you had been among the first disciples who heard that the stone had been removed from Jesus' tomb and that Jesus' body was no longer there, what would you think? What did Mary of Magdala, Simon Peter, and the disciple whom Jesus loved think had happened? Recall that this experience is the first indication Jesus' disciples have that he is risen. Throughout the Easter season, we will learn more about how the disciples came to believe that Jesus had been raised from the dead.

Pray together using today's psalm, Psalm 118: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad."
