Martirio: ¿Para qué Ser un Mártir?

Hoy en la primera lectura sabemos del martirio de San Esteban, el primer mártir de la Iglesia católica. El trozo que tenemos empieza con "Esteban, lleno del Espíritu Santo, miró al cielo, vio la gloria de Dios y a Jesús que estaba de pie a la derecha de Dios." Cuando dijo que estaba viendo los cielos abiertos y a Jesús, los líderes judíos no pudieron aguantar a Esteban poniendo a Jesús en tal posición como si fuera Dios. Una visión y una fe lo sostenían durante mientras que ellos estaban apedreándolo hasta matarlo.

Seguramente ustedes han escuchado de otros que han sufrido el martirio aun en nuestros tiempos y de los Estados Unidos. ¿Qué causa a una persona morir por defender sus ideas y creencias religiosas—por su fe? ¿Cómo puede aguantar el sufrimiento y la muerte por algo que no se puede tocar? ¿Por qué los de una religión que predica la importancia de amor no pueden aguantar a los que tienen otras creencias, aunque también son de Dios y predicán el amor?

Necesitamos mirar nuestras prioridades. ¿Qué es la prioridad número 1 en tu vida? Darte completamente a tu trabajo, darte plenamente a tu familia, proveer buena educación para sus hijos, seguir fielmente a Jesucristo, ganar mucho dinero para sentirte exitoso, ¿ayudar a otras personas...? ¿Tu fe viene primero?

Esteban tenía mucha fe en Jesucristo y el Espíritu estaba actuando en él, fortaleciéndolo, ayudando a él aun hasta la muerte. Pienso en mártires modernos de América Latina como Oscar Romero, obispo, El Salvador; Stanley Rother sacerdote, EEUU; Rutilio Grande, sacerdote, El Salvador; Menche Ruiz, catequista, El Salvador; María Gómez, maestra catequista, Colombia; Luz Marina Valencia, religiosa, México; María Mejía, campesina, Nicaragua... Por vivir fielmente su fe, por trabajar por la justicia, la justicia que Cristo nos pidió vivir, por enseñar a otros las verdades de la fe, por apoyar a los pobres y los que viven a la periferia de la sociedad, por acompañar a los trabajadores, etc. los mártires perdieron sus vidas. Como Esteban, ellos pudieron hacerlo porque estaban llenos del Espíritu Santo.

Desde el bautismo hemos tenido el Espíritu Santo habitando dentro de nosotros, protegiéndonos, fortaleciéndonos, inspirándonos, ayudándonos y animándonos. ¡Lleno del Espíritu Santo! ¿Te sientes la acción de Dios dentro de ti en tu vida diaria? ¿Pudieras dar tu vida por tu fe? Ellos dieron testimonio de su fe por el hecho de entregar sus vidas libremente. Hace dos años el Papa Francisco honró a 13,000 mártires del siglo 20 en una ceremonia espectacular en el Coliseo. Los que han perdido sus vidas dan a los vivos más fuerza y esperanza. Hay que recordar a los de los primeros siglos iguales como los de nuestros tiempos. Hay persecución en cada siglo. Quien sabe si tiene que dar el testimonio a su fe por el martirio, pero si Dios pide que demos testimonio público por medio de nuestras acciones diarias. ¿Dios y tu fe son tu prioridad #1? Hermana Kay

El Señor mismo marchará al
frente de ti y estará contigo;
nunca te dejará
ni te abandonará.
No temas ni te desanimas.

Parish Pastoral Council Nominations

We are now taking Parish Council nominations. We will select the members in a drawing at the end of the 10:30 am Mass on June 5th.

To serve on the council, one must be a registered and supporting member of our parish who regularly attends Mass and is committed to dialogue and spiritual growth. You may nominate yourself or others. All nominated people will be contacted before we select names on June 5th. Nomination forms can be found in church.

Happy Anniversary to Fr. Mike.

June 3rd marks
five years since his priest ordination.

7TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus prayed saying: "Holy Father, I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me." — Jn 17:20-21

Family Connection

Any family that has tried to sit down to a family dinner or packed the car for a trip has heard children argue at least once about who should sit where. To sit next to someone, especially if that person is important, is to have a place of honor. Jesus has this place of honor, seated now at the right hand of the Father (as we say in the Nicene Creed and the Apostles' Creed), but there's more to this metaphor than where Jesus sits in relation to God. To be in the place of honor is also to be in a place of power. Knowing people in powerful places can be very helpful. Children remind us of this each time we are called upon to referee a conflict. Jesus, honored now at God's right hand, is a powerful ally for us. As you gather as a family, recall a time when there was a discussion, or perhaps even an argument, about where people were going to sit. Talk about why it might be important to a person to sit in a particular place. Mention that in this Sunday's Gospel we learn about Jesus' place in heaven. Read together Luke 24:46-53. Talk about how in the Creed we describe Jesus' place in heaven as "seated at the right hand of the Father." Discuss what we might learn about the relationship between God and Jesus from today's Gospel and from the Creed and what we can learn about Jesus' relationship to us. Observe that one of the things we learn is that Jesus continues to help us from this place of honor in heaven. Pray together the Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
