We had a great time at our Parish Picnic. Mass was beautiful with Bishop Matano blessing our newly renovated church.

Thank you to all that helped with our picnic, especially, Peg Hartman and her family. Thank you to the band, The New Reflections, they volunteered their time for us and sounded great. Thank you to Michele McManus for making one of her beautiful delicious cakes.

Renate Dewa and her family helped make the raffle a great success. We raised $9130.00 with 50% of that being raffled off. Thank you all who bought and sold their raffle tickets.

Convocado por la Palabra

Cada domingo estamos reunidos al escuchar la Palabra de Dios. La invitación es para celebrar una Cena y compartir un pedazo de pan y una copa de vino. Jesús mismo nos invita desde hace muchos años al decir: "Tomen y coman, este es mi Cuerpo" y "comen y beban, esta es mi Sangre."

Es el sacerdote quien repite esas palabras durante nuestra celebración Eucarística extendiendo la invitación a toda la asamblea—a la comunidad. Nosotros recibimos la invitación de comer y beber juntos. El comer y el beber son unidos a la fraternidad. Cuando estamos invitados a la casa de alguien para comer en su mesa, entendemos que es un signo de amistad y de fraternidad. Significa cercanía, acogida, fraternidad y amistad.

Eso de comer y beber juntos es algo social. Reunidos en fraternidad comemos el pan cotidiano ganado por el trabajo y los sudores, de la fatiga, pero a la vez es el pan del amor y que nos hace subsistir.

En la cena bebemos vino que se relaciona a la alegría de la celebración. Vemos que en celebraciones festivas hay un brindis. Sí, hay festividad en nuestra celebración los domingos y el uso de pan y vino indica una cena, pero no es una cena cualquiera. Es el banquete del Señor ofrecido a nosotros para alimentarnos feliz y espiritualmente. El Señor Jesucristo se nos ofrece a nosotros. Este es mi cuerpo; esta es mi sangre. Recibimos un alimento espiritual que nos fortalece. Es el cuerpo entregado y el vino es su Sangre derramada. Así podemos entender que Jesús está entregando su vida; no está protegiéndola. Día tras día Jesús está entregando su vida a nosotros. En vez de quitar la vida, el trabajo o el sustento de otros, Jesús está entregando la vida a otras.

Cuando comulgamos estamos diciendo "Amén" al Cuerpo entregado y la Sangre derramada. Es como si estuviéramos diciendo, "Yo comulgo con Él y con lo que Él hace." Así Jesús nos pide un cambio de vida: para vivir más como Él vivió. Comulgamos con la persona de Jesús.

Intenten de pensar más en todo eso cuando se acercan a Jesús para comulgar. Jesucristo quiere entregarse a ti para ayudarte conocerlo mejor y para que puedas ayudar a otras personas mejor.

Family Connection

In our age of fast food and eating on the go, families often find that they are not eating meals together at a dinner table. As a family, look back over the past week and recall how many meals were eaten together and how many meals were eaten alone or on the run.

In the Bible, meals are seen as much more than a means to satisfy a physical need. The Hebrew people viewed eating a meal as a way of expressing and strengthening their relationship to one another under God's covenant. It is no coincidence that meals are often the setting of Jesus' teaching and miracles in the Gospels. In this Sunday's Gospel, we hear the story of Jesus feeding the crowd of 5,000 people.

Read this Sunday's Gospel, Luke 9:11b-17. Talk about the kinds of hungers that people have in addition to physical hunger. Describe the hungers that a family nourishes (love, compassion, forgiveness, laughter, and so on). Together give thanks for the food that Jesus gives us that we celebrate on this Sunday's feast of the Body and Blood of Jesus. Make a commitment to share in this Eucharistic meal together as a family.

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets. — Lk 9:16-17
