SUMMER SCHEDULE

During the Summer months, we will not be having Holy Hour every week. Holy Hour will only be on the last Wednesday of the month, July 27th and August 31st. We will still have the 6 pm Mass every week EXCEPT for the two Wednesdays we have Holy Hour. Confessions will be heard before the Wednesday Mass, 5:20-5:50 pm and during Holy Hour. Tuesday and Thursday 8 am daily Masses will remain the same. All will be in the chapel. September 21st we will go back to the regular schedule of every Wednesday Mass and Holy Hour starting at 6 pm, with confessions during Holy Hour. However, it may remain in the chapel.

The gift table will be set for the people to present the gifts at the offertory. As in the past, the family member of the Mass intention may bring up the gifts. If no family member is present, we invite others to bring the gifts forward.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." — Lk 10:41-42

Reflexión Sobre Lc. 10, 1-20

"Pónganse en camino; los envío como corderos en medio de lobos. No lleven ni dinero, ni morral, ni sandalias, y no se detengan a saludar a nadie por el camino."

Los discípulos no se sentían seguros de sí mismos para poder cumplir con la misión de Jesús. Hay algo de consuelo en saber que no estoy la única persona que se ha sentido así. Cuando Jesús envió a sus discípulos a difundir sus enseñanzas, no significaba que los discípulos se sintieran listos. De hecho, estoy casi seguro de que no lo hicieron. Que se nos pida que caminemos por fe es algo aterrador. Queremos certeza. Queremos un camino. Queremos una mochila llena con todo lo que podamos necesitar, y queremos especialmente dinero y nuestros zapatos con nosotros. Pero por lo general no es así como funciona el mundo. Se nos pide, constantemente, que demos saltos de fe antes de sentir que estamos listos. Algunos saltos son pequeños. Algunos saltos no lo son.

Padre Jesús escribe:

Campesinos migrantes que no imaginaban ver a sus hijos llegar a la Universidad. Gente que en todas las fronteras del mundo exigen, con su vida, la transformación de las políticas migratorias. Madres solas que se entregan a cuidar y educar a sus hijos (Isaías 66,10-14). Jesús se acerca a la humanidad como a un campo listo para la cosecha... sin ser ingenuo ante lo negativo de la realidad.

Y así te envía...apoyados en escasos recursos (sin dinero, sin gran tecnología, sin mucha seguridad) porque lo que da eficacia a la misión está en la capacidad de amar. El estilo de vida de esos enviados es un desafío para una sociedad que establece sus valores en la competencia y en lo superfluo. Aprenden que esa tarea nunca podrá ser iniciativa de individuos aislados; esa tarea solo puede gestionarse en grupos, con sueños compartidos, con iniciativas colectivas y dialogantes.

Como el profeta Isaías, sea bien acogida o no tu misión, insiste que ¡el Reino está llegando!

Si has dejado que la "oración" se haga parte de su vida, entonces puedes apostarle a lo que venga: puedes arriesgarte a caminar, con tus propias limitaciones y fragilidades, "como corderos en medio de lobos". Has sido enviado(a) a "piscar" los valores que ya existen y florecen entre la gente...porque ahí es donde la paz se hace posible. Después, junto con los compañeros y compañeras de camino, vas descubriendo que las exigencias de la jornada han hecho surgir riquezas que no sospechabas.

Te asombras de traer entre manos esa capacidad de vencer "la fuerza del enemigo", pero mucho más te asombras de que tu vida tiene que ver con Jesús el "hombre nuevo", que fue enviado primero. Su misión no es solo una respuesta al mal; es también una respuesta oportuna cuando se ha perdido el sentido de la vida...(Lucas 10,1-20).

Family Connection

In our families and homes, we have boundaries. Some are geographical; we may have our own room or part of a room that we want others to stay out of. Parents may have home offices that are off-limits to children. Some boundaries are behavioral; children may speak one way to their friends, but they are not allowed to speak the same way to their parents or other adults. A Curfew is another type of boundary, whose purpose is to protect children's safety.

Talk about examples of boundaries in your family. For the most part, these boundaries are good. Talk about how sometimes we set up boundaries for the wrong reasons. For example, if we are angry with a sibling, we may draw a line and tell him or her to stay on his or her side. Explain that when we use boundaries to exclude others, we are being hurtful. Point out how in Jesus' time, some boundaries were used to unfairly exclude people. One example was from last week's Gospel: Samaritans. This Sunday's Gospel has another example: women. Talk about how the role of women has changed in your lifetime. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus breaks down a barrier that kept women from being disciples.

Read aloud Luke 10:38-42. Talk about how Martha is conditioned by the existing boundaries of her society, but how her sister, Mary, breaks through that boundary and becomes a disciple of Jesus. Talk about how you can work as a family to break down boundaries that separate people. Point out that when we pray the Lord's Prayer, we call God "Our Father," meaning that we are all his children; no boundaries should separate us. Conclude this time together by praying the Lord's Prayer.

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
Amen.*
