RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Please check the bulletin for updates.

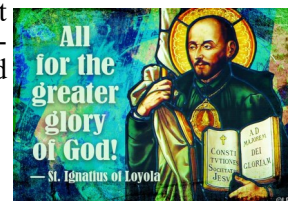

This Monday we celebrate the Labor Day holiday. It is a national holiday dedicated to recognizing the contributions workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our country. Traditionally, we commemorate this holiday with barbecues and pool parties. Many people consider the Labor Day weekend to be the end of summer and the last chance to have a summer vacation.

After Labor Day, things start to change. It's a time of change or transition. We move into the fall season. Some of the young people will go away to college or start high school and others have already started a new school year. The baseball season is winding down and the football season is beginning. A transition means that something has ended and something new is about to begin. Sometimes transitions can be happy ones and other times they can be stressful.

St. Ignatius Loyola said that we can find God in all things. Finding God in all things is at the core of Ignatian Spirituality and is rooted in the awareness that God can be found in everyone, in every place and in everything.

We recognize that God is present in our world and active in our lives at all times through the happy and stressful transitions of life. Our faith tells us that we do not face these on our own. It is the time set aside for reflecting on our call to follow Jesus and to live out the Gospel day by day, one day at a time, through the happy and stressful transitions of life. One of the key elements that helps us to deal with changes and transitions is prayer. It is in praying to God that He reveals Himself to us and provides an opportunity to grow closer to Him. Transitions in life are inevitable. Labor Day marks just one of the many little transitions of life. The season of Ordinary Time continues to remind us that in all these transitions we can encounter Christ and in that encounter can experience the presence of God in our lives.

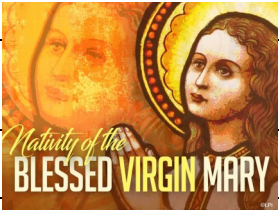

*Praised Be Lord
Jesus Christ!!!

¿Estamos Viviendo la Justicia?

Nuestra fe en Dios vivida en la Iglesia Católica nos llama a ayudar mejorar el mundo en el cual vivimos. Hay católicos en muchas partes de la sociedad. Somos trabajadores agrícolas migrantes, ejecutivos de corporaciones, políticas, educadores, asistentes en centros de cuidado, trabajadores en fábricas y en entrenamiento, deportistas, periodistas, amas de casa, etc. Todos de nuestra comunidad de fe debemos ayudar a nosotros católicos ser instrumentos de la gracia de Dios y un poder creativo en los lugares de trabajo y en la vida diaria en general. La justicia social y el bien común están contruidos o destruidos día tras día en las muchas decisiones y elecciones hacemos. La decisión para buscar la justicia no es solamente la responsabilidad de un individuo sino debe ser la tarea de todos los miembros de la comunidad. Es como miembros bautizados de la comunidad que estamos llamados a seguir a Jesucristo en el camino de la justicia social.

La justicia social empieza en la familia y es la familia que es el centro de una llamada a la justicia. La manera por la cual tratamos a nuestros padres, esposos(as) e hijos(as) muestra nuestro compromiso al amor y justicia de Jesucristo. Mostramos nuestro compromiso al evangelio por cómo gastamos nuestro tiempo y dinero y si nuestra familia tenga una ética de caridad, servicio y acción por la justicia. Enseñamos a nuestros hijos por lo que hacemos para los demás y nuestro compromiso a la justicia. ¿Realmente compartimos con los demás?

El trabajo no es una carga; es la manera de sostener a la familia, realizar nuestra dignidad, promover el bien común y participar en la creación de Dios. Puede significar hacer lo ordinario muy bien, usar muy bien nuestros talentos y oportunidades. Si somos seguidores de Jesucristo debemos elegir nuestro trabajo sobre cómo podemos usar mejor los dones recibidos de Dios. Muchas veces las decisiones que hacemos en el trabajo pueden contribuir a una ética positiva o negativa de justicia. En el lugar de trabajo a veces moralmente estamos forzados a elegir entre valores competitivos: valores positivos o negativos. ¿Seguimos el camino de nuestro bautismo o el camino del mundo que posiblemente indica pisar encima del otro para ganar más poder y dinero? Entra en las decisiones el amor del cual Jesucristo nos habló.

Building Strong Catholic Families

There are many people, events, and activities, that are competing for our time. Children also feel the pressure of many things competing for their time. Jesus clearly states in the gospel that HE and nothing else should be first place in our life. This does not mean that all those things competing for our time are bad. When Jesus is #1 in our life and family, everything else falls into its proper place. What place does Jesus have in your life and in the life of your family?

2022-2023 Faith Formation Year

Sacramental Preparation: 1st Penance/Communion

Students who hope to receive the sacraments of 1st Penance/Communion in 2nd grade should be enrolled in 1st grade faith formation or in a Catholic School. Students who are in 2nd grade this year or older who are ready to begin their journey of preparation to receive these sacraments are invited to join us this year! A parent orientation to 1st Penance/Communion will be Thursday, September 15th, 6:30pm at St. John's in Clyde. Sacramental preparation is done in addition to regular faith formation classes.

Classes for Confirmation Prep resumes on SATURDAY, September 10th at 9 am at St. John's School in Clyde. Classes are normally the 1st Saturday of the month, but because of Labor Day holiday it has been moved to the second Saturday for September. Classes for 2022 are September 10, October 1, November 5 and December 3. Classes start at 9 am and end about 11 am.

Family Connection

Provide your children with a list of things that they are responsible for interspersed with things that they like to do—for example, make their beds, take out the garbage, go to the park, do homework, watch television, have a snack, feed the cat. The list should reflect their responsibilities and favorite recreations. Tell them to pretend that company is coming and ask which of the things listed should be done first. Explain that this is called setting priorities. Paraphrase the Gospel story for the children. Ask them what Jesus says is the most important thing for them to do. Jesus tells us that the number-one priority is to follow him. But just as it is not always easy to do the things we are supposed to do before doing the fun things, it is not always easy to be a follower of Jesus. Yet when we put Jesus first, we will be truly happy.
