Recordamos a los Difuntos durante noviembre

Tradicionalmente pensamos en nuestros seres queridos durante este mes. Manden a Hermana Kay los nombres de los parientes y amigos suyos que han muerto durante este año para que podamos recordarlos de una manera especial durante el mes y también en la Misa mensual el 25 de noviembre.

CHRISTMAS ALTAR FLOWERS

There is a separate envelope for Christmas Flowers, Sunday, November 27th. Please use that envelope to purchase flowers. On the back neatly write the name of the loved one you are remembering. If you don't receive envelopes, the form we have used in the past will be in the gathering space. Envelopes and forms are both due back to the parish center by Sunday, December 11th, so that the names of those to be remembered can be placed in the insert for the Christmas bulletin. Any questions please call Katie at the parish center.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST KING OF THE UNIVERSE

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." — Lk 23:35-37

For an increase in devotion to our Blessed Mother

LECTORS

The new 2023 Lector Books are available.
Please contact the Parish Office if you would like one.

The Feast of Christ the King was instituted in 1925 to address growing attitudes of secularism and atheism and to proclaim Christ's kingship forever. The day also marks the final Sunday on the Church's Liturgical Calendar.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

NEWS & NOTES....

Something NEW this Christmas Season...

Memorial Christmas Candle requests.

Candles are $10.00 each and can be purchased in memory of a loved one. The Candles will be personalized and used as decorations during our Christmas Masses. Request envelopes will be available at all Churches and must be returned to the office by December 5th. Please contact the Parish Office if you have any questions

PLEASE JOIN US!!!

We are very excited to report that our weekly Coffee Hour Fellowship at St. Thomas resumed on October 10! It has been a very long time since we have been able to gather in our homey fellowship space. The coffee hours have been well attended, and it has been heartwarming to be able to visit and catch up with friends. We currently have 5 couples who have volunteered to host coffee hour. There is a sign-up sheet in the vestibule of Church. If you have questions, please do not hesitate to contact Mary Krehling (315-243-7411) or Paul Statskey (315-398-0922).

YOUR SOCIAL MINISTRY DONATIONS AT WORK

Monies donated to our CCBT Social Ministry through Parishioners envelopes, as well as monies donated from the Auer Foundation, have blessed many families in our local area. People were helped with rent, a security deposit, car insurance, a car payment, car repairs and taxes. A $500 donation was made to the Fair Haven Blessing Box, Fair Haven Community Church Food Cupboard, Red Creek Community Food Pantry and Wolcott Presbyterian Church Food Pantry. The Migrant Ministry received a $500 donation. A generous amount of clothing was purchased for the Community Clothing Center, which often provides clothing for Family Promise families. Also, we provided Easter dinners for 15 families. It goes without saying that none of this is possible without your generous donations. In addition, we are grateful for the overwhelming support of the backpack drive, diaper drive for Family Promise and for our group of meal warriors who provide meals to Family Promise on a quarterly basis. Words cannot express the gratitude we feel for your support of Social Ministry. We are truly blessed! If you have any questions, or know of a family in need, please do not hesitate to contact Pam Auclair (315-529-2742) or Marie Smith (315-591-1051).

Building Strong Catholic Families

Miki Sciba's article Jesus, Lord of the Universe, Lord of our Home says "The culture in your home needs to be more powerful than the culture outside the home. The "do as I say not as I do" model is not effective. Parents are called to lead by example. Participating in the kingship of Christ involves overcoming the reign of sin in our lives and allowing truth, grace, holiness, and charity to prevail. If you want your children to pray, you pray. If you want them to be gentle, patient, and kind; you must be gentle, patient, and kind. If you want them to love God, you must love God. They must see God's love in action through you." Let's make Christ King of Our Homes!

A Year of Coming to Know God

What happened when Adam and Eve disobeyed God's command? Our intellects were darkened, so it became hard to perceive and grasp the most fundamental truths. Our wills were weakened, so it became difficult to do what is good. Most importantly, we broke our relationship with God. And once we had broken it, we couldn't fix it. God didn't leave us in our wretchedness. Although the story of humanity is a story of continual sin and sadness, it's also a story of God taking initiative time and again to bring us back into relationship with Him.

"Dear Lord, on Thanksgiving Day, we bow our hearts to You in prayer. We give You thanks for all You have done, mostly for the gift of Jesus Christ, Your Son. For beauty in nature, in which we see Your Glory, for joy and health, friends, and family. For our daily sustenance, Your mercy and care, these are the blessings You kindly share. So today we offer this response of praise with a promise to follow You all of our days. Amen."

"I am the bread of life." John 6:51

Next weekend, November 26th/27th, there is collection to support Catholic University and other American Catholic Higher Education Institutions. More than two thousand students from our diocese receive scholarships because of your generosity. As always, thank you for your support.

Family Connection

Understanding today's Feast of Christ the King may be particularly challenging. While we may not have a direct experience of kings or royalty, we have some sense of what these mean. We know that royalty have sovereignty over their kingdom. We know that those who are subjects to royalty offer them allegiance and honor. Christ is King in a way that is different from traditional understandings of royalty. Christ's kingship extends to all places, all people, and all times. Christ manifests his kingship through his death on the Cross, in which he offers salvation to all.

Recall with your children stories that you may have read about royalty. Talk with your children about what they have learned from these stories about what it means to be a king. Talk about what they have learned from these stories about what it means to be a subject.

Tell your children that this Sunday is the last Sunday in the Church Year, and on this Sunday, we celebrate a special feast called the Feast of Christ the King. Read today's Gospel, Luke 23:35-43. Reflect together on how the various people in this Gospel respond to Jesus on the Cross. Who in this Gospel recognizes Jesus as King? (the thief) What does Jesus promise the thief as a result? (The thief will be with Jesus in paradise.)

Talk about how your family will recognize and honor Christ the King. Pray together the Lord's Prayer and ask God to help your family to act in ways that show you recognize and honor Christ as King.

Hands of Christ applications are available at all churches. Completed forms due by December 1st, please. For more information call the Parish offices.
