A special Mass honoring the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes and the World Day of the Sick will be held on Saturday, February 11th at 10:00 am. Anointing of the sick will be offered at this Mass. Please come and help support those parishioners who are present with us and have an illness. Let's also pray for those who are sick in our world and have no one to request prayers for them. Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us!

Please pray for the families of those who have died:
John McCarthy, cousin of Carmella Owen

SOMETHING NEW....

We will begin taking request from parishioners who would like to purchase a vase of memorial flowers or have the Sanctuary candle burning in memory of a loved one for the week. Flowers and candle request will be $10 each. The first Sunday for these new memorials will be February 5th. After the Sunday Masses, the flowers will be moved to the chapel for daily Masses. If you have any questions please see June after Mass or call the parish center.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Humble of the Earth

When I think of the Beatitudes, I think of collectible coffee mugs emblazoned with the words Blessed are the peacemakers, with little pastel flowers stenciled in the white spaces of the lettering. I think of greeting cards and decorative wall hangings.

Why? These are the Beatitudes, for heaven's sake — revolutionary and radical. An uncompromising impeachment of worldly values. They are the opposite of banal.

But I cringed from my head to my toes when I read my first draft of this reflection, a retelling of a time in my life when I decided to embrace humility and meekness. I realized that the Beatitudes aren't something I can tell you about. Poverty of spirit, the hunger for righteousness, the gladness God gives to the downtrodden — these are concepts that must be animated within us. They must be lived. So instead of telling you my story, I want you to tell yours.

I invite you to think of a time when you were vulnerable. When you were discouraged or humbled or felt like a failure. A time when you were cut low. The loss of a job, perhaps, or the rejection of a loved one. The abrupt end of some road that you felt sure would be long and prosperous. Resentment, envy, and vengefulness flourish in moments like this. Did you experience those feelings? Did you embrace them? Did you want to?

What did the world tell you this moment should mean?

What does Christ tell you it should mean? Have you figured it out, or are you still working on it?

God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong.

— 1 Corinthians 1:27

Building Strong Catholic Families

Today's Gospel offers a contrast to many of the messages we hear in our society today. If we were to accept uncritically the "get ahead" messages of our culture, we would think that happiness means having money, being successful, having many possessions, and so on. When we think this way, we are not unlike the people who heard Jesus teach on the day that he taught the Beatitudes. The crowd that day also associated happiness with material possessions and status. The last two verses are a summary of the eight beatitudes; an invitation to put this teaching into practice. The Christian life is no easy matter, but it is worthwhile, given the reward Jesus promises.

A Year of Coming to Know God

Why is Baptism the first step of the Christian Life?

Baptism as Birth: Jesus refers to Baptism as being "Born water and the Spirit" (John 3:5)

Baptism as Death: Paul refers to Baptism as entering Christ's death (Romans 6:3)

Baptism as Cleansing: Baptism involves a washing, a cleansing. Baptism as a New Life: The Holy Spirit – God's very life – enters our souls at Baptism

So just as in Jesus, God took on human life, so in Baptism, we take on divine life

And just as Jesus gave His life for us, so we the Baptized are called to give our lives for Him
