"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son so that everyone who believes in him would not perish but have eternal life."

This passage speaks strongly. God loved the world and remained faithful in his love to the end. In the beginning, everything God created was good and beautiful. Ugliness and sin have entered the world through the perverse devil and iniquity of the first people who, in exchange for the promise of divinity, have shown God infidelity. But God, even after sin, did not cease to love the world he had created, but he had made efforts to turn the fallen and draw them to himself again. In many ways he spoke and exhorted fallen humanity until he finally spoke most strongly through his Son. In his Son, the Father has declared His love most, and everyone who accepts the Son has the Father's love within himself. The Holy Spirit, who is love, then begins to act and sanctify the sin nature of man.

It is said that St. Augustine was at a beach meditating on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, when he noticed a boy who brought water in a little shell and emptied into a hole he had made in the sand, doing this repeatedly. The Saint asked him what he was doing, to which the boy replied that his intention was to put all the water from that ocean in the sand hole. St. Augustine said that was impossible. To which the child replied that it was more impossible to understand the mystery of the Holy Trinity. It is difficult to understand how God is one and yet manifests as three different people. It is something that definitely can not be understood. What we do know is that God is of unlimited love. He is so great that He has manifested before us as the Creator of all because His love manifests by creating.

He created us according to his image and likeness, to love so that we respond freely.

Today, when we celebrate the Solemnity of the Trinity, let us remember that in Jesus we were saved, that the Father gave us the Son and the Spirit so that we may share in a wonderful communion with the perfect communion of God. For each of us there is a place at the table of God, none of us is excluded. Only at this table can we feel truly ourselves, regain peace and feel at home. May God in the Holy Trinity be glorified.

Laudetur Jesus Christus !

¿Qué es la Eucaristía?
La Eucaristía es el sacramento que hace presente, en la celebración litúrgica de la Iglesia, la Persona de Jesucristo (todo Cristo: Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad). Esta presencia no es estática o pasiva (como la de un objeto en un lugar) sino activa, porque el Señor se hace presente con el dinamismo de su amor salvador: en la Eucaristía Él nos invita a acoger la salvación que nos ofrece y a recibir el don de su Cuerpo como alimento de vida eterna, permitiéndonos entrar en comunión con Él —con su Persona y su sacrificio— y en comunión con todos los miembros de la Iglesia.

God Doesn't Take a Break

An acquaintance who works in church ministry once told me a story about one of the students she had in Faith Formation. This student informed my friend that his family doesn't come to Mass in summer. "God takes a break in summer, and so do we," he said.

There's a lot to unpack here. First, it's tragic to think of anyone voluntarily missing out on the Eucharist for so long. It's also a real problem in the church today that a lot of our folks don't understand the beauty of the Sunday obligation. But if I had to dissect this situation and pinpoint the thing I find most troubling, it's the idea of God taking a break.

I hope it's starting to look like summer where you are. We've still got a few weeks left before it's official, but the school year should be winding up for most kids, the birds should be chirping a little louder, and hopefully your lawn is starting to green up nicely. You're probably daydreaming about the annual cabin getaway weekend or waterskiing on the Fourth of July.

All in all, summer is going to be a nice break, even if — like typical Americans — our break is full of productive work. Thank God — literally — that He doesn't take a break, even if we do. Can we try to remember that, even in the midst of our many wonderful distractions? Let's enjoy this summer. Let's live it to the full. But let's see it for the gift that it is — and remember the thanks we owe the Giver.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Holy Hour is Tuesday evenings at 7:00 pm at St. Mary Magdalene.

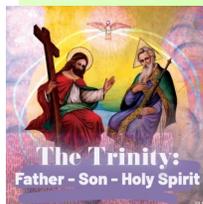

This Tuesday's topic is:
For the conversion of hearts throughout the world.

On Sunday, June 11th after the 8:00 am Mass we will begin our moving process to St. Jude's Church for the summer months. The first Mass at St. Jude's will be on Sunday June 18th at 8:00 am. Any questions please contact the Parish Office.

Save the date!

The Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity (CCBT) is hosting its Parish Picnic from noon to 4 p.m. on Sunday, July 23 at the Bay Shelter at Fair Haven Beach State Park! There will be fun and games, plus hot dogs and hamburgers. This picnic will be a dish to pass picnic. Details to follow."

The Church is one, holy, catholic, and apostolic. That oneness is mirrored for us in the Holy Trinity: one God in three Persons. We are a diverse community with different backgrounds, cultures, realities, and gifts, but we are truly one. Unfortunately, we too often forget this and function as a fractioned body. We needlessly compete against one another, judge one another as opposed to help, and sit silent when our brothers and sisters call out for help.

When we take seriously our stewardship way of life, we see our lives as not truly belonging to ourselves. We want to offer our very existence to God and the Body of Christ. If we find that we are resistant to that fullness of generosity, or we begin to use our gifts in a way that fractures community, we then actively work in contrast to this mark of the Church.

The Church that was established by Jesus and fortified by the institution of the sacraments cannot be destroyed and deprived of Her four marks. The human element may be strained and injured, but not even the gates of hell will prevail against this institution alive in the Spirit. Our actions can either bear witness to that reality or it can bring offense. Let us pray that enough of us will choose the holy way so all the world may see that God is real, Jesus is alive, and we are ONE.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

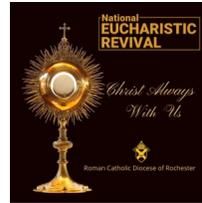

Building Strong Catholic Families

Because of God's great love for us, he sent his Son, Jesus, to save the world. Jesus, in turn, sent the Holy Spirit so that our faith in God and his love would be strengthened. The nurturing experiences of family life also help us to understand and have faith in God's love.

Create a family poster together showing all the ways in which your family experiences God's great love. Use symbols, pictures, and words to show how you have seen God at work in your family life and in our history. Then read together today's Gospel, John 3:16-18. Pray together, thanking God for his gift of love. Conclude by praying the Glory Be to the Father or today's Psalm.

Parish Eucharist Revival

Padre Pio loved the celebration of Mass and the reception of Holy Communion. He once said, "It would be easier for the world to exist without the sun than without the Holy Mass." He fully believed that Jesus was truly present, body, blood, soul and divinity during the celebration of Mass. This great gift inflamed in his own heart a deep and abiding love of God. He said, "At times during the Mass I am consumed by the fire of Divine Love. My face seems to burn."
