JULY 2, 2023

My brothers and sisters in the Lord !

As we celebrate the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time, we hear a familiar gospel theme, that of making Christ the center of our lives, a theme that often runs parallel with a difficult teaching. Recall the story of the Rich Young Man. The difficulty for the young man was the instruction to "sell your possessions and give to the poor."

It was so troublesome that the young man does not seem to hear the call to follow Jesus. In Matthew 9:23, we hear Jesus saying that His followers must deny themselves and take up their crosses daily. Denying oneself? Taking up crosses on a daily basis? Those are tough teachings! Today we hear it again; Jesus must be the center of our lives. He must be revered above parents, children and this life. It is an understatement to say that Jesus asks a lot of us. It is not easy to be a Christian, to live the life to which Jesus calls us. We are called to make sacrifices, to defend our beliefs, to suffer criticism and possibly to bear the death experienced by the holy martyrs of the Church. Our Catholic Christian mission is laden with challenges that can be met only if Christ is the center of our lives. If God is for us, who is against us? (Romans 8:31) As Christ took up His cross, so we, too, take up our crosses and continue His salvific work. We are called to spread the gospel message with great and small acts of love, from sacrificing our lives to giving only a cup of cold water. We are called to live and move and have our being in Christ. (Acts 17:28)

This week we celebrate the 4th of July. If you are traveling, may your guardian angel accompany you and safely bring you home. May God continue to bless our churches and parishioners. Laudetur Jesus Christus!

Fr. Felicjan

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

As a boy my favorite board game was "Chutes and Ladders." The players roll dice to move from the start to the finish, from the bottom of the board to the top. If you land on a chute, you slide back and down. It was a bummer. Land on a ladder, and you jump well up the board and near the goal. It was a thrill to find a ladder and draw closer to the goal. That's life, isn't it? At every moment, we're either moving closer or farther from the goal of our lives.

How do we win? Jesus tells us the secret of life's chutes and ladders hinges on getting our loves rightly ordered. What we love in life is meant to be a ladder, drawing us up into God's love — including our family, friends, work, play, food, and drink. Even to give your water to someone out of love for Christ leads to a sure reward.

But those ladders of our loves can become chutes. If we love even our family members more than Christ, we slide down and back. If we love the persons and things in our life for the sake of Christ, He says we "surely will not lose our reward." The key difference between a chute and ladder, between our spiritual regression and advancement, is our willingness to renounce everything — even our own life — for the love of Jesus. To allow everything and everyone we love to draw us to love him more — that's the difference between chutes and ladders.

— Father John Muir

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A Prophet's Reward

"Move back in with us until you save enough for a decent house," my mother told me over and over again as the birth of my second child neared.

My little family was quickly outgrowing our rented space, but the housing market in our area was a nightmare for first-time homebuyers. As appealing as the offer was, I kept refusing, convinced that my mother didn't understand the chaos, disruption, and loss of personal space that such a move would mean for her and my dad.

I was wrong — she did. And eventually she wore me down. When my son was three months old my family of four moved back into my old bedroom. My parents made an office space for my husband in the basement, and they converted their den into a playroom for two of the loudest children you will ever meet. They told us we could stay as long as we needed to (it ended up being two years). They greeted us with love and warmth every morning and never made us feel like we were an inconvenience.

Today's first reading always reminds me of my mom, not because I consider myself a prophet (hardly) but because of the way she received me — specifically, in whose name she received me.

I've always tried to understand exactly what makes my parents' acts of love — toward me, toward each other, toward perfect strangers — feel so genuine. I think, after more than 30 years, I've finally realized the secret: my parents love God more than they love me. They love God more than they love anyone. Like making room in their life and their home for me and my boisterous family, these acts originate in sacrifice. They don't come cheap. They come from the cross.

"Whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

— Matthew 10:39

July 4th INDEPENDENCE DAY

Prayer for the Fourth of July

On this Independence Day I am reminded of all those who have sacrificed for my freedom,
following the example of your Son, Jesus Christ.

Let me not take my freedom,
both physical and spiritual, for granted.
May I always remember that my freedom was purchased with a very high price.

My freedom cost others their lives.

Lord, today, bless those who have served and continue to give their lives for my freedom.

With favor and bounty meet their needs and watch over their families.

Help me to live my life in a way that glorifies you, Lord.

Give me the strength to be a blessing in someone else's life today,

and grant me the opportunity to lead others into the freedom that can be found in knowing Christ.

Amen.

One can tell a lot about a family by the way they welcome others into their home. Despite parental efforts to elicit the best behavior from their children, family efforts to entertain guests are sometimes difficult. Practicing a spirit of Christian hospitality within the family can be an occasion to reflect upon the importance of this virtue. A family spirit of hospitality is a sign of faith.

When your family gathers, ask each person to consider the following questions about manners: What does it mean to be a good host? What does it mean to be a good guest? Invite each person to share their thoughts and experiences about being a guest or a host. When they have finished, read aloud today's Gospel, Matthew 10:37-42.

Ask family members to describe what Jesus says about hospitality extended to his disciples. (Those who receive Jesus' disciples also receive Jesus himself; hospitality to Jesus' disciples will be rewarded.) Then encourage family members to talk about what it means to be a good guest or a good host. You might also talk about ways in which your family's hospitality might be improved upon. Conclude in prayer together that your family grows to be one in which Christian hospitality is experienced by all. Pray together the Lord's Prayer or today's Psalm.

Next week July 9th, there is a second collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This collection supports the Church in more than 25 countries that still struggle to recover from former communist rule. Your support restores the Church and builds the future in this region. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection next week.
