OCTOBER 22, 2023

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY. We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call, to bring the Gospel to all. The collection today for the Society of the Propagation of the Faith supports the work and witness of the Mission Church, as it provides for priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions.

Thank you for your generosity.

NEWS & NOTES....

Faith Formation classes will be held at 9:15 a.m. on Sunday, November 1st (All Saint's Day Mass at St. John's 6:00 p.m.), November 12th, December 3rd and 17th.

If you have not registered, there is still time to do so. Contact Debbie Liseno 315-651-2733.

Children's Liturgy of the Word is now available for children in grades K-6 at St. John's Church during 10:30 a.m. Mass. Please have your children join. This is a time to make the liturgy of the Word relevant to the lives and experiences of young children in our Parish.

On November 2nd, All Soul's Day in honor of those who have died in the past year we will have a Remembrance Mass at 6 pm at St. John's Church.

The SJTW Parish Office is seeking parishioners to form a Social Ministry Committee to help serve those in need in our communities. The committee would determine which organizations to assist in our area, then oversee the collection and distribution of donations. Please contact the Parish Office for more information or to volunteer for this very important ministry. Thank you and God Bless

With the inspiration of St. Francis of Assisi, the Lyons Inter Church Council sponsored for the third straight year, the Blessing of the Animals in Lyons Central Park on October 7th, 2023. The Reverend Felicjan Sierotowicz, St. Michael Church and Reverend William H. Wigmore III, First Lutheran Church headed up the program and are pictured with John Hewes, a member of the Council who read a passage. Also participating were Marcia Bilancini, First Lutheran Church and Beth Whitbeck, First Presbyterian Church, who provided music. Father in his prayer and Blessing mentioned we are very thankful for the presence of our pets in our lives. They are praised for making us so happy to have pets as companions.

Holy Hour is Tuesday evenings at 7:00 pm
at St. Mary Magdalene.

This Tuesday's topic is:
For all those grieving the loss of a loved one.

The Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity Men's Group is back in session!

The Men's Group will be meeting at St. Thomas at 7 pm on the last Monday of the month from now until June. While the study of St. Paul will be the main focus, discussion is rarely limited strictly to study. Open conversations are encouraged and the environment is non judgmental. Food is served with pizza typically a centerpiece, but often complemented with various treats brought by fellow members. Men of all ages are encouraged to attend.

The Return of Coffee Hour/Dinners

Everyone is invited to come downstairs for our potluck dinners at SMM following the 4:30 p.m. Saturday Mass. Dinners will be held on the first Saturday of each month. Please join us for fellowship, a little music, and food. If you choose to bring a dish to share, it's always greatly appreciated!

Please pray for the repose of the soul of:

Pregnant and parenting moms are in need in our parishes and neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be "islands of mercy in the midst of the sea of indifference. Everyone in our parish community should know where to refer a pregnant woman in need. Our parish is joining a nationwide effort entitled "Walking with Moms in Need", (www.walkingwithmoms.com.) As part of this initiative, our parish will undertake a yearlong process to assess, expand and better communicate resources to pregnant and parenting moms in our local community. We invite all parishioners to join us as we begin this journey together. For more information, please contact Eileen Bielemeier, 315-594-2385 or bielemeier@gmail.com.

In today's Gospel Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem continue their tense exchange of questions and challenges. At this point the disciples of the Pharisees, together with the Herodians, try to entrap Jesus by their question about the payment of taxes.

Matthew sets up an unusual partnership between the Pharisees and the Herodians. The Herodians were supporters of Herod Antipas, a Jewish political leader who collaborated with the Romans. Such collaboration would have required a compromised observance of the Mosaic Law. The Pharisees, on the other hand, taught scrupulous observance of the Mosaic Law and opposed Roman occupation. Herodians favored the payment of taxes; the Pharisees opposed it. The Herodians and the Pharisees approach Jesus, asking that he take sides in their dispute. If Jesus answers with the Pharisees, he shows himself to be an enemy of Rome. If he answers with the Herodians, he offends popular Jewish religious sensibilities.

Jesus' response to this attempt to trap him exposes the guile of his questioners. From his first words to them, Jesus shows that he is very much aware of what they are trying to do. He asks to see a Roman coin, which is readily provided to him. It may have come from the hand of a Herodian, but the Pharisees show themselves to be quite willing to accept this compromise. Jesus has already exposed the Pharisees as hypocrites.

Jesus takes his response one step further. He asks that his questioners examine the coin. Agreeing that it is Caesar's image on the coin, Jesus tells them that it must belong to Caesar. Avoiding the question of lawfulness altogether, Jesus answers their question with simple logic. Then, going further still, Jesus tells them that their obligation is to pay to God that which belongs to God.

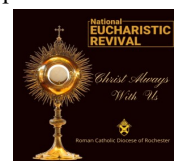

Jesus' response to the Herodians and Pharisees suggests the ethic that Christians ought to adopt. It reminds us of the importance of keeping things in their proper perspective. Do we attach ourselves to worldly things at the expense of the love and honor that we owe to God?

"I am the bread of life." John 6:51

After the Collect, or opening prayer, offered by the Priest or Celebrant, the congregation responds with a concluding Amen, and we all are seated for the Reading of Scripture. Any qualified lector, a layperson trained for the task of reading at Mass, can read the Old and New Testaments. Lectors spend time preparing to read Sacred Scripture at Mass. Everyone sits during the readings, while the lector stands at the ambo or pulpit, located in the sanctuary, left of the altar and proclaims God's Word. On Sundays, a selection from the Old Testament is our first reading. The only exception to this is during the Easter Season, where the first reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles. Following the first reading, a selection is taken from the Book of Psalms, which is usually set to music and sung, led by our organist, cantor, and choir. Following the proclamation of the Psalm, a selection from one of the New Testament Epistles is proclaimed. The Epistles are the letters of Saints Paul, James, Jude, and John. Next week we will continue with the reading of Sacred Scripture at Mass, as we approach the high point of the Liturgy of the Word, the proclamation of the Gospel. Sincerely, Fr. Felician
