Next weekend there is a special collection for Diocesan Mission Sunday. This collection supports the Mission of the Sisters of St. Joseph in Brazil and the Mission of the Sisters of Mercy in Chile. We are called to help them this weekend with our prayers and sacrificial gift, so that they may continue to bring Christ into a world where darkness, despair and emptiness prevail. Let us help bring hope to them. Please give generously.

June 17 Poetry and Prayer ~ A presentation for our Jubilee Year Fr. Peter Murray, SJ

We continue our reflection on the Sacrament of Confirmation. The word confirmation means "strengthening." The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) says the sacrament of confirmation "both confirms baptism and strengthens baptismal grace" (CCC 1289). Believers have the Spirit, the breath of our God, from baptism. But the Spirit at Confirmation is the breath behind speech, giving us the power to raise our voices in witness. A witness testifies to what is known from personal experience. Christian witness is a believer's testimony to what they know: Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, is life and hope for all the world. Christians can witness in a variety of ways; from simple, everyday ways such as enthusiastic words, or concern for others to dramatic ways, such as dying for their faith as a martyr. "By the Sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized are more perfectly bound to the church, and are enriched, with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. So they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word indeed." (CCC 1285) "Do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say. You will be given at that moment what you are to say. For it will not be you who speak but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you." (Mathew 10:19-20) We will continue our reflection on the Sacrament of Confirmation next week.
